Fusion Body Paves Way to Public Aid In Merger Inquiry

NEW CHARTER LEAGUE PLAN IS LAID BY '21'

Mass Meeting Called for the Night of Sept. 2 to Consider and Ratify Proposal for a Bigger County Organization

Committee Refuses to Select Freeholders Without Wider Co-operation; Electors to Be Given the Right to Join

Refusing to take any action toward the nomination of freeholders until such time as the general public should have the opportunity to join with them in an Alameda County Charter League, the Committee of Twenty-One last night contented itself with laying the plans for the larger organization and setting a date for a second mass meeting at the city hall.

If this mass meeting, at the session set for September 2, ratifies the action of last night, the Committee of Twenty-One will have passed out of existence and the Alameda County Charter League, open to any elector in the county, will be in charge of the campaign for city and county consolidation. It is probable that the standing committees of the smaller bodies, such as those on law and facts, will be continued.

DISCUSS PLAN FOR TWO HOURS.

Organization of the Charter League was perfected with the adoption of the report of the [illegible] committee on organization after a discussion of more than two hours. Under the plan accepted, the temporary organization or Committee of Twenty-One, and the temporary officers, are made permanent officers of the larger organization.

Provision is made for the selection of a vice-president from each incorporated city or town in the county and five at large from the unincorporated territory. The vice-presidents, secretary and treasurer will be elected and the chair was authorized to appoint a special committee of five members to submit nominations for these offices.

The five named last night by Chairman Walter D. Cole were: Mrs. Aaron Schloss, Berkeley, chairman; Fred J. Stoer, Emeryville; O. C. Marr, Albany; A. W. Beam, Hayward; W. G. Tibbitts, Alameda.

The report also called for the appointment, by the president, of the new charter league, of an executive committee, a committee on the nomination of freeholders, a publicity committee, and one on ways and means. It set the meeting dates as the second and fourth Thursday of each month, and included a pledge the signing of which is to entitle any elector in the county to membership.

TWO POINTS ARE DISCUSSED

Discussion, following the adoption of the report, centered on two things: first, if by its action the committee had dissolved itself, and, second, the advisability of naming freeholders.

It was finally decided that the Committee should be regarded as a sub-committee of the general body which appointed it, and that, until its action was ratified at another session of the larger body, its work would not be accomplished.

A suggestion that the nominating committee to select freeholders be named at once was contained in the report of the committee on facts and brought out general opposition.

"Before proceeding with the appointment of such a body," said W. J. Locke, of Alameda, "I question the wisdom of this body undertaking the matter of selecting the freeholders. First, we should get some measure of support from the outside, from the entire county. I think we should send out cards inviting representatives to a general meeting. The least we can do is to obtain the proper men to frame the charter and we are proceeding in the wrong manner if we should name this committee before we have a membership to this new organization. It is an action that will be resented."

BERKELEY MAYOR ALSO IN OPPOSITION

Mayor Louis Bartlett, of Berkeley, also spoke in opposition of the immediate naming of a freeholders' committee, and suggested the calling of a general meeting as soon as possible. On motion of Miss Annie Florence Brown, the session was set for September 2, at 8 p. m., in the city hall.

Once the organization was perfected in its preliminary stage and it was understood that the temporary officers should be permanent, several members asked to state their positions in regard to accepting positions with the larger league.

"I wish it understood," said Chairman Cole, "that without the endorsement of the larger body I will not accept the presidency of the league. It strikes me it might be advisable for the presiding officer to be a person other than one from the largest city."

"I believe that the political psychology would be improved," said

'Indentured' Boy Is Given Freedom By Illinois Court

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill., Aug. 27.—Adelbert Daluege, Illinois' only "bound boy," was free today.

Adelbert, 16, appeared in court here at the expiration of his term of four years, four months and twenty days to ask that John Bress be made his guardian. He was bound in 1915 to "learn the trade of agriculture and dwell at the farmhouse of John Bress." He was to "serve and in no way damage his master nor waste their property and keep their secrets." It was further sitpulated that the boy was not to "play cards, dice or unlawful games, nor contract marriage, enter tippling houses or places of gambling. In return the boy was to be lodged and rudiments of edication.

The indenture was the first filed in Illinois since Civil war days, acfed, taught his trade and given the cording to officials here.

Berkeley Will Vote to Solve Water Problem

Special Election Called to Form Public Utilities District With Albany.

BERKELEY, Aug. 27.—A special election to vote upon two public utility propositions was called today by the city council for November 13.

Plans to be placed before the voters are for the formation of a public utilities district to provide a water supply, with the city of Albany, or for the formation of a district with Albany and with the unincorporated districts of the county joining Berkeley and Albany on the north.

ALBANY PETITIONS FOR ELECTION IN CIRCULATION

Albany has already taken action similar to that of Berkeley and petitions are now being circulated in the unincorporated districts with a view to securing action from the county supervisors toward calling an election there.

Calling of the election was put over the last council session on objection of Commissioner Charles D. Heywood, who declared that, while he favored the plan, he believed that an effort should be made to secure the entrance into the district of all of the cities of the Eastbay. Today Heywood announced that he was convinced that the smaller district was the only plan left if Berkeley was to secure anything approaching immediate action and that he was convinced of the impossibility of including, within a reasonable length of time, the other cities in the district plan. Commissioner E. T. Harms spoke to the same effect.

MAYOR DECLARES WATER QUESTION PARAMOUNT

Objections by Commissioner Carl Bartlett to the fact that the election was not set at the time of the general one and based on the additional costs, were answered by Mayor Bartlett, who said:

"The water question is so important to Berkeley that I, for one, do not wish to have the minds of the voters disturbed by the presidential election."

Japanese Is Hanged for Murder of Girl

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Aug. 27.—T. Niino, Japanese, paid the death penalty by hanging shortly after 10 o'clock today for the killing of Misao Hayashi, a Kings county Japanese girl, who had refused to marry him.

Niino was convicted of having shot the girl twice with a shotgun as she was picking grapes with her mother at her home. She died instantly. Niino pleaded insanity at his trial, and an effort as made to secure commutation of his sentence on this ground.

The trap was sprung at 10:23 a. m., and Niino was pronounced dead in 15½ minutes. He walked to the gallows without faltering and met death calmly.

James Kelly, a spectator from Richmond, fainted when the trap was sprung. He was speedily revived.

JAPANESE DEFIED BY U. S. SOLON

Congressman Hersman Halts Japanese Korean Police Trying to Hustle Him Out of Hall; Release Prisoners

Meeting of Koreans Broken Up by Officials Representing Tokyo Government, Who Claim Nippon Plot

SEOUL, Korea, via Shanghai, Aug. 25—(Delayed) (United Press).—Korean police (Japanese) who stopped Congressman Hersman as he was addressing a gathering of Koreans here today, were hustling him out of the building when the Californian resisted, refusing to budge a foot farther.

Hersman demanded that prominent Koreans who had been arrested because they attended the meeting, be released. An argument resulted.

At this point, American Consul Miller intervened. He persuaded the Japanese to cease their interference with Hersman and to release the Koreans.

JAPANESE ALLEGE BOMB PLOT WAS NIPPED

Hersman addressed the meeting not knowing that the Japanese had withdrawn permission. The Koreans had assembled to greet the party of American congressmen who are traveling through the Orient.

The official meeting of welcome had been transferred by the Japanese, who gave the excuse that the crowd was so large the police would be unable to protect the Americans from alleged bomb plotters who had threatened their lives.

After Miller had intervened, the charge that the meeting was unlicensed was dropped.

About Korea the charge that Koreans had plotted to bomb the Americans is generally attributed to Japanese propaganda against Korea.

An earlier cable from Seoul via Tokyo did not give cause for interference of the police. It also failed to state that the Japanese police had laid hands on Congressman Hersman, stating "Hersman was asked to leave"

HERSMAN SERVING HIS FIRST TERM IN CONGRESS

SAN JOSE, Cal., Aug. 27—(United Press).—Hugh S. Herman, whom Japanese police in Korea sought to force to leave a meeting he was addressing, is a banker of Gilroy. He is serving his first term as congressman from the eighth California district, and is up for re-election.

Hersman is father of the California Prune and Apricot Growers' Association, and is author of the Hersman Copper bill. He is given credit for the action exempting farmers' co-operative associations from classification as trusts.

Eastbay Cities Begin Plans of Harbor Surveys

Plans for a comprehensive survey of the harbors of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda were begun today at a luncheon held in the Hotel Oakland under the auspices of the harbor development committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce.

A special committee composed of representatives of all of the mainland cities interested, including Alameda, was organized under the chairmanship of E. M. Boggs, and immediately brought under way the gathering of data to be presented to Colonel E. E. Winslow of the army engineers, at hearings to be held in Oakland and Berkeley within about a month.

ESTIMATES SOUGHT AS TO DEVELOPMENT.

All of the factories and other business concerns situated on the harbor front or using the harbor facilities will be asked to submit figures on their present and prospective tonnage and expressions of opinion as to the needs in the way of harbor improvement. This information will be prepared in a brief form by the special committee and laid before Colonel Winslow.

The action taken today was under a clause in the last rivers and harbors bill provided for a preliminary examination of the harbors of the Eastbay section. In 1910 congress authorized the improvement of Oakland inner harbor, and a survey was made by the army engineers. The projects outlined at that time have just been completed. The government has spent about $5,000,000 and as much more has been expended by private interests.

COMMITTEES ORGANIZE FOR NEW SURVEY.

Oakland—E. M. Boggs, R. Porter Giles, J. H. King.

Berkeley—Wells Drury, Charles D. Heywood.

Alameda—J. C. Stannard, A. Pichner, A. G. Rhodes.

Albany—Mayor O. C. Marr.

The committee had laid before it Berkeley's plans for the establishment of a great shipping terminal on its waterfront. This project, known as the Pacific Port Terminals, contemplates a large fill extending from the mainland almost to the pier head line.

It was the opinion of a number of the members of the committee that all four cities on the mainland should work as a unit for the development of this project in common with all other plans tending to improve the harbor facilities of the Eastbay section.

Women Fight For Seats to See Mrs. Clark

Two Hundred in Scramble When Case Is Transferred to New Courtroom.

A near-riot occurred this morning in the Oakland police court among more than 200 women when the case of Mrs. Chester J. Clark, confessed slayer of her husband, was transferred from Department No 2 to Department No 1.

The women began to assemble in Department No 2 early this morning to hear the testimony in the preliminary hearing of Mrs. Clark, which began yesterday. Long before the case was called at 10:15 o'clock the courtroom was filled to its capacity. The bailiff was instructed by Judge George Samuels to close the doors and to allow no more persons to enter except those who were called as witnesses. Bailiffs and court employees were forced to enter the room through the judge's private chambers. Nearly a hundred women gathered outside in hopes of gaining entrance.

Shortly before 11 o'clock Judge Samuels announced that the case would be transferred to Department No. 1 on account of the poor air in Department No. 2.

STAMPEDE IS BEGUN FOR COURTROOM SEATS

There was an immediate stampede for Department No. 1. Those outside had the advantage over those within. Some of those outside, however, did not know where Department No. 1 was situated, and consequently they were pushed about and some were jammed against the walls as those within pushed through the narrow doorway.

Inside Department No. 1 it was a scramble for seats. Here, too, it was a free-for-all. Individual wrestling matches were witnessed by those who had already secured seats. Finally, the bailiff had to take a hand and violently shove the doors to in order to quell the disturbance.

Rallying from the weakness which overcame her yesterday when she appeared before Police Judge George Samuels for her preliminary examination on a charge of murder, Mrs. Clark was led into the courtroom this morning, pale and indisposed to lift her gaze from the floor, where it remained throughout the proceedings.

Wagon Officer Fife took the stand for cross examination. When he told of how he found the body lying on the bed, Mrs. Clark showed signs of weakening, and called for a glass of water.

During the cross examination of Fife the pistol with which Mrs Clark is alleged to have shot her husband, was produced. Fife was instructed by the court to examine it to see if it contained loaded shells. During this operation several women who had crowded into the jury dock near the witness chair showed signs of nervousness. Two of them got up and left their seats for a safer place from which to witness the proceedings.

Mrs. Bessie M. Stone, sister of the dead man, and Addie J. Brown, who resides next door to the Clark home, were called as witnesses.

TELLS OF EXCLAMATIONS BY MRS. CLARK.

Mrs. Brown testified that when she was summoned to the Clark home she heard Mrs. Clark say, "Daddy, oh daddy, what have you done."

She said that when she entered the room where the shooting took place, Mrs. Clark had the pistol in her hand. Mrs. Brown said she [illegible] Mrs. Clark not to touch the weapon. Mrs. Clark then said, according to Mrs Brown:

"Oh, I did touch it. I took it out of his hand. See, this is the gun with which he shot himself."

She said Mrs. Clark then dropped the gun on the bed and paced up and down the room, sobbing hysterically.

The examination was continued until tomorrow morning. Two more witnesses are to be heard.

Sultan Must Lead His Hosts Against Rebel

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 27.—By The Associated Press.)—Sultan Mohammed VI must personally lead Turkish troops against the Turkish Nationalists in Anatolia to prevent dissolution of the empire, it has been decided at a special Cabinet meteing. The Sultan's army virtually does not exist, but the allies apparently are willing to permit the organization of a Turkish force to co-operate with the Greeks in attacking Mustapha Kemal's armies under conditions guaranteeing them against desertions to the nationalists.

Mustapha Kemal, according to reports, has taken the seat of the nationalist government from Angora to Sievis where preparations are being made to receive the government, should impending military movements threaten the former city.

COX CHARGE BRINGS HOT REFUTATION

Pittsburgh "Expose" of Big Republican Funds Called "Dreams" and "Error" by Men Who Sway Campaign

Proof Fails, Chairman Hays' Answer; Figures Are Wrong Says Upham; Harding Has Dignified Silence On Case

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, replying to the speech of Governor Cox in Pittsburgh last night in which the Democratic presidential nominee sought to prove that Republicans "were conspiring to buy the presidency" declared that Cox had such "intimate knowledge of the wasting of millions in aircraft production in his state" during the war that he "dreamed in millions"

Hays issued the following statement.

"Of course Candidate Cox fails to prove, as he has failed to prove and will fail to prove, his charges This is simply because the charges are false.

"He says millions have been put into the Republican national committee by sinister influences to corrupt the electorate He first is reported to have said a hundred million Then Secretary Roosevelt said thirty million. Then Candidate Cox said fifteen million, while now Candidate Cox says eight million

SAYS HE DREAMS IN MILLIONS

"He attempts to prove this by quoting from the official bulletin of the ways and means committee of the Republican national committee, a pamphlet published every few days and sent broadcast over the country to party members and to newspapers, all to instill interest among the workers, and from an alleged quota sheet which he claims indicates the amounts to be raised in certain cities, which he does not even charge was adopted or any operation had thereunder.

"Candidate Cox, himself a millionaire, has had such intimate knowledge of the wasting of millions in aircraft production in his state and Secretary [illegible] has had such an intimate knowledge of the burning of billions by the administration of which he has been an important part that these men dream in millions."

REFERENCE MADE TO SENATE INQUIRY

"They will have an opportunity in Chicago to prove this insult to the thousands of good citizens all over the country, which are counted in the Republican party

"Incidentally, they will have a chance next week to indicate the source of their own money, both of their national committee and other agencies outside of their national committee raising money to try to aid in Candidate Cox's election."

Schedule 'Phony' Avers Treasurer; Quotes Own Sums

CHICAGO, Aug 27.—Governor Cox's schedule of Republican campaign fund quotas in fifty-one principal cities is a "phony list which I never heard of before." Fred W. Upham, Republican national treasurer, said today on his return from New York.

"Somebody must have played a joke on the Governor," Upham declared.

"The Republican National committee has never apportioned any quotas to cities The only quotas assigned were given States, the money to be used for both State and national campaign purposes. Each State committee apportioned its quota as it thought best."

Upham showed a statement that collections up to this morning total [illegible] of which New York State, including New York City, gave $225,292.

He reiterated the statement of Chairman Hays that the budget planned for the national campaign totalled slightly in excess of $3,000,000.

CITES TWO CASES OF COX ERROR

Upham cited Cox' figures for New York City, $2,000,000, and said this was the quota for the entire State of New York for both State and national campaign purposes.

The amount credited Chicago in the Governor's table, $750,000, is $50,000 more than the entire quota of the State of Illinois, he said.

"Governor Cox does not appreciate the difference between a quota and a budget," said Upham. "The quota is assessed on the basis of what we estimate would be a fair share for each State, and is placed high enough to allow for a large shrinkage in the amount actually obtained.

"The plan of the financial campaign was laid on lines designed to get away from large collections from the principal centers of the country. In every previous campaign of both parties, not less than 75 percent of all funds raised came from New York.

ONE PLEA ONLY TO BUSINESS MEN

"The plan this year also takes into consideration the fact that business men dislike to be bothered by several solicitors. We combined the needs for both national and State campaigns and solicited the entire amount at one time. In many States, New Mexico, Arizona, Tennessee, Kentucky and North Carolina, for example, the entire quota is to be spent for State purposes and nothing for the national campaign.

"After the nomination of our candidate, the financial committee prepared a careful budget of expenditures for the national campaign. This budget, as already stat-

DRIVE REDS TILL THEY MAKE PEACE! PARIS TELLS POLES

PARIS, Aug. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—The foreign ministry announced today that France had counseled Poland to attain the best strategical military position possible until peace is signed, regardless of her ethnographical frontier, because the military situation will influence the peace terms.

France had advised Poland, however, to withdraw her armies within the Polish frontier upon the signing of peace, the foreign office added.

Eighty thousand Russia Soviet soldiers have been captured in Poland, 40,000 killed and 30,000 interned in East Prussia, according to the latest report received from the French mission in Poland.

The number of prisoners taken by the Poles was said to be narly eighty thousand, while about sixty thousand have crossed into East Prussia and been interned.

Sporadic fighting was reported on some portions of the battle line extending from the region of Grodno southward to the vicinity of Lemberg, but north of Warsaw the sole activity appeared to be the rounding up of scattered bands of Reds.

BRIGADE OF REDS GIVES UP TO POLISH TROOPS

WARSAW, Aug. 27.—A Bolsheviki brigade of 4000 which crossed the Dniester river before Horodenka and reached the Serth river was surrounded and surrendered to the reinforced forces that are clearing out the region south of the Dniester and the left bank of the Bug on the Galician front.

The Bolsheviki no longer are grouped on a continuous front, but isolated fighting is continuing. Groups that reach the right bank of the Dniester are driven back or surrounded and captured. These Red detachments are said to be composed largely of Caucasians or Turkestans. It is reported that they have done much pillaging, but have not displayed ardor in fighting for the Soviets.

Later he escaped and resumed his place in the army, rising to the rank of lieutenant. When the Soviet government was established he was promoted and rose to high command, being credited with the defeat of Admiral Kolchak in Siberia and General Denikine in Southern Russia. He is only 28 years old.

TWO MONTHS MORE OF WAR FORECASTED

LONDON, Aug. 27.—Immediate peace in the Russo-Polish theater of war is not in sight, it was declared at the foreign office today. Foreign office officials say they expected from six to eight more weeks of fighting before peace is concluded.

By WEBB MILLER,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—British labor is demanding that the government take immediate steps to bring about peace between Russia and Poland.

The laborites take the attitude that Great Britain, chiefly instrumental in forcing the Bolsheviki to modify their armistice terms, should now exert possible pressure upon the Poles to compel acceptance of the proposals which were previously approved by Premier Lloyd George.

In a message sent jointly to Lloyd George, Arthur Balfour and Leo Kameneff, Bolshevik trade commissioner in London, the executive council of the British Labor party declared that body had helped to induce the Reds to withdraw the objectionable terms—thus removing the obstructions to peace—and urged that the British and Russians simultaneously publish the full terms upon which peace can be obtained.

Witos insisted that uninterrupted communication with the Polish delegates in Minsk is vitally necessary.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Poland's note to the United States in reply to the request of this nation that Poland shall not go beyond its ethnological boundaries in warring against Russia will not be given out for the present, Secretary Colby announced today, although it had been planned to do so.

GOVERNMENT MAY RELEASE MacSWEENEY

The MacSweeney case, coupled with the threatened coal strike, led to reports today that Premier Lloyd George had decided to curtail his "vacation" in Lucerne and return to London. The rumor was revived that the government would release MacSweeney on the pretext of having contracted tuberculosis, thus relieving the situation without relaxing its announced determination to release no more hunger strikers.

The latest word from Brixton prison today was that the lord mayor was in a semi-conscious condition and so weak that doubt was expressed of his recovery even should he receive his release.

After visiting the lord mayor this morning his wife and sister Annie said his death was imminent.

Berkeley Refuses to Cut Street Lights

BERKELEY, Aug. 27.—Orders of State Power Administrator Butler, directing Berkeley to cut down its street lighting by 20 per cent, will not be obeyed, according to action taken by the city council today. Until such time as various signs and unnecessary lights are ordered out the city will make no curtailment, the council told John Pape, representative of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, who made the request for the saving.

CHARTER LEAGUE MERGER PLAN BY COMMITTEE OF 21

The committee might go ahead [an]d say a certain saving could be ef[fect]ed but when the freeholders [go th]rough they might recommend [a for]m of government which would [mak]e this saving impossible

[RE]PORT MADE BY [FA]CTS COMMITTEE

[Th]e facts committee report said [W]e are convinced that a saving [of $]50,000 a year on purchasing [alon]e could be made and other sav[ing]s would be for the freeholders to work out. We see no reason why a saving of upward of $1,000,000 could not be made

We further find that another important question in city and county consolidation is the question of a public utility district The various municipalities associated together under a proper form of government in this county would virtually constitute a public utility district whereby they would be in a position to control their public utilities.

"Without consolidation the forming of a public utility district would be to create more salaried offices and another taxing body and add another expense to the already overburdened taxation

We recommend that the committee on freeholders be chosen at once that the proper board might be selected.

After defeating this recommendation the meeting accepted the report which was regarded as no more than preliminary

"There is money behind us" he said "not millions but enough to care for the needs of the committee

Interrupting from the gallery J S Patterson of Albany made an appeal that the committee enlighten the country districts as to its purposes and accomplishments

"When you send out your invitations" he said "explain what you are trying to do Nobody outside has a clear idea at this time and if you keep them in the dark you are sure to meet defeat "

Hang Boy Slayer, Urges Dorsey

District Attorney Scores Crime

Declaring the plea for commutation of the death sentence for Roy Wolff, the 17-year-old boy who murdered Elmer Greer, "is based on mere sentiment," J R Dorsey district attorney of Kern county today urged that the Yakima, Wash, boy be hanged October 22 Dorsey telegraphed the following detailed statement of the crime to the United Press

By J. R. DORSEY.
(District Attorney of Kern County)

Roy Wolff was tried by a jury composed of practical citizens of Kern county The fact of his youth was constantly before them yet after hearing the facts of this horrible murder they brought in a verdict carrying the death penalty

The evidence showed Wolff plan[ned the] killing of Elmer Greer a highly respected citizen of Taft a worthy member of Bakersfield Lodge of Elks and a married man

CRIME CUNNINGLY PLANNED.

Wolff was old enough to know that he must dispose of the body in such a way that it would not be discovered until he should have time to make his escape in the automobile, for which he deliberately planned the killing Hence he directed Greer to drive him to a sparsely settled portion of country After striking Greer on the head with a two-pound hammer and thinking Greer dead, he rolled him from the auto at a point miles distant from habitation and where, on account of the sagebrush and other growth the body would not have been discovered until attention would possibly have been attracted by circling buzzards or the howling of coyotes

Greer, by reason of his almost superhuman vitality, revived and crawled four miles to a railroad station where his condition was noticed by the crew of a passing train

As provided by the juvenile court law Wolff's case was first brought before the juvenile court where the juvenile judge after hearing the evidence as to the prior record of Wolff including his record before the juvenile court at Yakima Wash decided Wolff was not a fit and proper subject to be tried before the juvenile court (the California Supreme Court yesterday upheld the juvenile court in this act and denied a writ of habeas corpus sought for Wolff) he was then placed on trial under the terms of the general law.

No child'sh mind worked out such a murder The plea for a commutation in this case is based on mere sentiment. Farris, Bundy and Oxman were youths Their crimes will not compare with the horribleness of the Greer murder, yet they paid the extreme penalty.

Who should be best trusted with the administration of the law in the Wolff case? The jury of respectable farmers and the businessmen none of whom, as I remember, knew Greer in his lifetime, and those who reviewed the evidence submitted to that jury, the decision of which court holds the crime committed by Wolff to be a deliberate, willful, premeditated and mercenary murder.

Not one word in the whole decision was in mitigation of the punishment nor intimating an excuse for the crime although the age of the defendant was constantly before the court.

HARDING IS TOLD EUROPE FAVORS G. O. P. POLICIES

MARION, O., Aug. 27.—Present-day opinions of European statesmen on the part this nation should take in the peace settlement were laid before Senator Harding yesterday.

Myron T. Herric, former ambassador to France, just returned from a series of conferences in Europe, said the western European statesmen now were hoping for a return of the Republican party to power and would welcome the peace settlement proposed by Senator Harding.

Herrick also intimated that the world court plan being formulated by Elihu Root would have a large place in the party's program.

OUTLINES SPEECH

The League of Nations issue also was discussed by George Sutherland, former Utah Senator. To both callers Senator Harding is understood to have outlined the speech he is to make here Saturday on foreign policy.

The nation must not hold aloof, but must "play its proper part" in the world's affairs. Harding said in a short talk to a group of Marion county school teachers. He declared himself as anxious as anyone to see peace preserved, but he added that the republic could accomplish its real mission in the world only if it remained unfettered.

WOULD AID TEACHERS

In his talk to the teachers, Senator Harding recalled his own early experiences as the master of a country school and that teachers "should be compensated as liberally, if not more liberally, than any other profession."

"I do not try to give you the impression," the nominee continued, "that the federal government can do that; but we do have a federal department of education which has only a relative influence on educational work. Some day we may have a much larger and more important department of education."

James M. Cox Jr. Makes 'Error' in Dad's Campaign

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—James M. Cox Jr., now a student in a military academy, was here to greet his father, who arrived today from Pittsburgh.

James Jr. sprang a sensation of his own when he announced to newspapermen that he was planning to accompany his father on his western campaign trip.

Dan Mahoney, the governor's son-in-law, however, broke in on the youngster to announce that his father had not been informed and that the announcement "was considerably an error, as James Jr. is going back to school September 15."

Cox' G. O. P. Fund Charges Bring Heated Refutations

ed by Chairman Hays, amounts to a little more than $3,000,000. There is no mystery about the operations of the financial department. On Monday, in my testimony, I shall submit to the senate committee the plan of campaign, the quota assessed each state, the amount obtained from each state for both state and national purposes, and the full list of subscribers, which in no case will show subscriptions of more than $1000 by any individual."

Standard Bearer Declines to Reply

MARION, Ohio, Aug. 27.—Senator Harding declined to comment today on the detailed charges of Republican campaign fund allotments made by Governor Cox last night in a speech at Pittsburgh.

"I have read it hastily and have not a word to say," said the Republican nominee. "I do not expect to have anything to say."

A negative shake of the head was the senator's reply to questions about the governor's declaration that the Republican nominee personally knew of and approved the allotments enumerated.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 27.—Governor Calvin Coolidge, Republican vice-presidential candidate, commenting on the Cox speech in Pittsburgh said today:

"I know of nothing to warrant these charges. No such plan as he outlined, as I gather from a hasty perusal of the charges, has been made."

If the charges of Governor Cox regarding Republican plans and quotas for campaign funds are no more true for the country at large than they are for the city of Oakland, the figures of the Democratic candidate for the presidency must be discounted by two-thirds before they are deserving of any popular attention.

According to Governor Cox, who last night revealed in a speech at Pittsburgh, Pa., what he said was the plan of the Republicans to raise a fund of $15,000,000 and who showed in support of his contention a list of the quotas which he said had been designated as the amounts to be raised by the principal cities of the country, Oakland was called upon to furnish $75,000 to the fund.

"If the Cox figures for the other centers apply to the facts no better than they do to this one," said Joseph R. Knowland, chairman of the Republican ways and means committee, "it will be seen that no reliance may be placed in them, and that the actual amount being raised to conduct the campaign is about one-third of what he would claim."

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 27.—"Absolutely untrue," was the comment of John L. Day, chairman of the Republican county central committee, when informed of the assertion of Governor Cox that Portland's quota for the "fifteen million campaign fund" of the Republicans was $50,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Governor Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, indicated here today that he woul make further "exposes" of Republican campaign funds within a week.

Governor Cox arrived from Pittsburgh at 8:35 today on his way to New Haven to deliver another address. George White, chairman of the national Democratic committee; Senator Harrison of Mississippi, head of the speakers' bureau, and other Democratic leaders greeted the standard bearer here.

Referring to an announcement from Will Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, that individual campaign contributions would be restricted to $1000, Cox said:

"Mr. Hays knows that such a statement is not true. The methods used by the Republicans are to get some big fellow to give $20,000 or $25,000 after which 19 or 24 dummy names are written down as contributors on the party's books."

When Governor Cox was asked about reports concerning Democratic national finance of a year ago, he said:

"I came on board the Democratic ship July 7. I know nothing about what happened before that time. One thing I can tell you, though, is that I found a deficit but no money."

CHARGES $15,000,000 FUND.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 27.—information to support his charges that a Republican campaign fund exceeding $15,000,000 was being raised "in a conspiracy to buy the presidency," was presented by Governor Cox in addressing a public meeting last night.

Governor Cox's data consisted almost entirely of matter taken from the "Official Bulletin" of Fred W. Upham of Chicago, treasurer of the Republican national committee. but his chief exhibit was a typewritten list purposting to show Republican campaign quotas imposed on fifty-one principal cities in twenty-seven states and aggregating $8,145,000.

Names of local subscribers, Governor Cox said, were ordered kept secret. These quotas, given as $2,000,000 for New York city, $750,000 for Chicago. $500,000 for Philadelphia, and ranging down to $25,000 for smaller cities like Albany, N. Y., and Atlanta, Ga., were said by Governor Cox to have been announced about he middle of July.

MANY REPORTS QUOTED.

That Senator Harding, his Republican opponent, "was acquainted with the details" of the quota plan and that it was also approved by Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, was charged by the Democratic candidate.

From subsequent issues of the "Official Bulletin," Governor Cox quoted many reports from Republican workers throughout the country, reporting going "over the top" and in excess of the alleged quotas.

Announcement of the $8,145,000 metropolitan quotas, Governor Cox said, was made by Harry Blair, assistant to Treasurer Upham. A meeting was held in Chicago, Cox said, at which Hays "spoke his blessings."

Cox charged that typewritten sheets bearing the fifty-one cities quoted, were "distributed to those assembled," and he produced one of the alleged quota lists but did not state how or where it was acquired. The quota plan, he said, was carrier out like that of the Liberty loan campaigns.

MUCH LARGER, HE SAYS.

That the reputed attempt to raise $8,145,000 from fifty-one cities in twenty-seven of the forty-eight states, is fair evidence that the total national fund will be much larger,

Following last night's meeting a number of those who are interested in the consolidation plan and the circulating of the petitions for an election hurriedly called a meeting for this noon at Hotel Oakland. As none of the dining halls was available they met in the main grill, where they discussed plans for the campaign.

Political Notes

The candidacy of William Kent for the United States Senate is being generally endorsed throughout Alameda county, according to a statement just issued by the Kent for Senator headquarters. The statement reads in part:

"Practically all the labor unions have endorsed Kent and thousands of men and women in all walks of life are coming to his support. While Kent is the last man in the world who boasts of his achievements, at the same time certain statements made on his war record should be answered. Kent had two boys in uniform, both of whom are members of the American Legion. He invested $400,000 in Liberty Bonds. He paid more than $10,000 to the Red Cross and gave more than $1,000 to the Salvation Army. He paid several thousand dollars to the War Labor Policies Board and used every effort to secure full co-operation between capital and labor for the successful waging of the war. Because of his long record of public service he should be given a tremendous vote at the primaries next Tuesday."

In a statement issued after a trip through the district which took him to Alameda, Marin, Coontra Costa, San Mateo, Santa Clara, San Benito, Santa Cruz, Monterey and Fresno counties, Judge George A. Sturtevant, candidate for Associate Justice of the District Court of Appeals, predicted that his friends in these counties had so conducted his campaign that victory is certain. He said in part:

"The reception accorded me in every county in the district was a touching tribute to the loyalty of my friends and I returned to San Francisco with the firm conviction that my decision that I would make the administration of justice my life work will result in a promotion to a higher field of endeavor."

Superivsor John F. Mullins has been notified of his endorsement for re-election as Supervisor of the Fifth District at next Tuesday's Primary Election by the Shipbuilders Boosters League of the Bay Region, comprising Bethlehem, Moores, Union Construction Co., and Hanlon's Shipyards. The officers of the league are: Tony Mazziotti, President; Charles Elridge, Treasurer; T. R. Gordon, Secretary; Executive Board, Geo. Clayberg, Phil Meresca, M. Silvia, J. E. Tatham, C. J. O'Grady, E. Cook, C. E. Cook, A. B. Machado, M. McClure, Harry Homan, C. Martin, F. Clinton, M. S. Rodgers, and J. Canfeld.

H. H. McPike, Chairman of the Democratic Committee of Alameda County, makes the following statement:

"Our canvass in Alameda County also shows that some thousands of Democrats, not having a contestant for United States Senator in their own party, have registered as Republicans to help them pick a loser at the primary."

Justice William H. Waste, of the California Appellate Court, a graduate of the Alameda County Superior Bench, has come forward with a strong indorsement for the retention of Judges T. W. Harris and J. G. Quinn on the Superior Bench of the country, and the election of Police Judge George Samuels to the Superior Bench.

"I note with much pleasure that Judge T. W. Harris, Judge James G. Quinn and Judge E. C. Robinson have received such strong indorsements in their desire to succeed themselves and that Judge George Samuels is being so strongly backed to take the position now held by Judge Brown, who will not be a candidate for re-election.

"I regard these candidates as being especially well qualified for these positions. My long service in the courts of Alameda county and my intimate association with these men, on and off the bench, has afforded me ample opportunity to form what I believe is a correct estimate of their character, worth and ability."

was declared by Governor Cox, who said big business men were prominent on the Republican ways and means committee, and that the raising of funds was on a business "salesmanship" basis.

Governor Cox also quoted from statements in the Republican "bulletin" that state and county organizations were not to be "disturbed or retarded in their activities."

"From the evidence which we shall submit," Governor Cox added, "I think you will agree that we are justified in multiplying Mr. Upham's figures by two. The senatorial oligarchy and their friends are harking back to the days of Mark Hanna." In the 1896 campaign which Hanna managed, $16,600,000 was spent, Cox said.

"It was this foul thing," said Governor Cox, "which Theodore Roosevelt brought to an end when he reformed the Republican party. When he was doing it, Warren G. Harding branded him as an Aaron Burr."

"I charge again an assault on the electorate."

The list of city quotas presented by Governor Cox included:

New York city, $2,000,000; Chicago, $750,000; Philadelphia, $500,000; Detroit, $450,000; Pittsburgh, $400,000; Cleveland, $400,000; Boston, $300,000; Cincinnati, $260,000; St. Louis, $250,000; San Francisco, $150,000; Los Angeles, $150,000; Seattle, $100,000; Oakland, $75,000; Portland, $50,000.

Besides his statement on Republican finances, which he prepared with great care on the train en route from Evansville, Ind., and which he read to his audience, Governo rCox also discussed the League of Nations and industrial problems, urging settlement of strikes without the bayonet.

HARDING UPHOLDS RAIL MEASURE

GALION, O., Aug. 27.—Unqualified approbation of the Cummings-Esch railway organization act was voiced by Senator Harding today in a speech here to railway employees.

Saying he was aware that some of the employees were dissatisfied with the measure, he prophesied that in the near future the workers would realize it was "the greatest forward step in all the history of railway legislation."

Senator Harding did not mention directly the anti-strike provision in the bill as it passed the Senate, but asserted that he stood for a policy that would make "continuity of service a government guaranty," and said he also wanted to see the railway men given the best of treatment by the government and by the American people.

He spoke at a picnic and athletic tournament of employees of the Erie railway.

"I like to think of an era in public service where government means not only to guarantee but to bestow prompt justice on the workers in a public service," he said, "not grudgingly yield it in an hour of apprehension and concern. Your service is not that of workmen in a private competitive enterprise. No matter what old abuses prevail, no matter what crimes were once committed, capital and its issues and compensations are under government control, rates of charge are a sound government regulation and I want continuity of service as a government guaranty, assured because your government and the possible government make just treatment its first concern."

Stage Driver Sent to Jail for Speeding

ALBANY, Aug. 27.—Walter Martin, an auto stage driver, who resides at 669 Eleventh street, Oakland, has been sentenced to three days in the county jail for speeding on San Pablo avenue. He was sentenced by Judge John H. Paul. He pled guilty to driving 37 miles an hour.

Theatrical Promoter, Rich, Hangs Himself

BOUNDBROOK, N. J., Aug. 27.—Guy Brigg, wealthy theatrical promoter, committed suicide today by hanging himself in the cellar of his home here. He is said to have inherited an estate estimated at $1,000,000 from his father, the late Benjamin Brigg, a financier largely interested in the Cunard steamship company.

The Letters of Tessie and Joe

DEAR JOE:

Well Joe I had Baby's fotograph taken today and you sure missed a 3-ring circus by not being there. The fotographer was a kind of a simple-looking man of the name of Siltz, maybe you remember the name on his sign down on the avenue. Kind of a simple name too, ain't it, Joe? The joke of it was, when he asked me my name and I said Mrs. Joe Pick, he said, "Pick, what a odd name."

Can you imagine me taking that off of anybody of the name of Siltz, Joe? "Well Mr. Siltz," I says, "if you consider Pick an odd name," I says, "all I can say is, it's a long lane that can see its own ash barrel." That was coming back at him, wasn't it, Joe? I don't believe he appreciated the sarcasm, but where ignorance is bliss just let them suffer, that's how I look at it.

Well Joe, the baby simply wouldn't stop crying, and there was some other people waiting their turn in the next room and this Mr. Siltz really acted very disagreeable after about the first three-quarters of an hour of it. I'd of thought there was a pin or something sticking him to make him cry like that, but the only clothes he had on was the socks his Aunt Sophie gave him so's he'd look at least partly dressed to please you (he certainly did look cute, Joe, just like September Morn's little brother) so it couldn't of been a pin, and finally this Mr. Siltz says, "Well," he says, "this child must be terribly spoilt to act like this.

Can you imagine me taking that off of any Siltz, Joe? "Oh must he, Mr Siltz?" I says, "well I assure you it's no fault of the child's if you have the type of face to make children cry," I says. And with that Baby stopped yelling and started to laugh like a rainbow. Can you imagine that a sense of humor at 3 months, Joe?

I'll send you one of the pictures as soon as they're done. Maybe it will help you sell Daisy Canned Soups. I'm sure the little angel's face would melt a heart of stone. As far anything helping anybody to digest Daisy Canned Soups, that's a different horse of another color.

I'm sorry it's so hot where you've been, though personally I always thought of a tank town as a cool sort of a place, by the name

Lovingly, TESSIE.

Both old and new recruits are needed by the organization, which is to be a motorized regiment of 155 calibre guns.

Artichoke Men Ask S. P. to Reopen Line

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Resumption of the operation of the Ocean Shore Railroad, under Southern Pacific lease, with a terminal at Third street, has just been proposed to the Southern Pacific officials by the Artichoke Growers Association, who have declared that they can guarantee not less than 500 carloads of through Eastern frieght a year. The Southern Pacific has not reached a decision on the matter which is the outcome of a conference of the interested farmers and property owners at Half Moon Bay.

Fairbanks-Pickford License Costs Job

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—Robert S. "Cupid" Sparks, who issued a secret marriage license to Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford, has been ousted from his position as head of the county marriage license bureau by County Clerk Lampton.

Sparks was transferred to the position of court clerk in one of the departments of the superior court. The change climaxes a controversy which has been waged for several months. Strained relations have existed between Sparks and the county clerk since Sparks issued the license to Fairbank and Miss Pickford. He was accused, it is said, of "holding out" the news of the issuance of the license so that it would not be published. A similar situation is said to have been precipitated when Charlie Chaplin obtained a license to marry Mildred Harris.

STATE NEWS

SANTA MARIA, Aug. 27.—Jack Stuhldreher and Holland B. Lemon were seriously burned and twenty automobiles and four business houses destroyed in a fire that caused damage estimated at $100,000. The fire was caused by an explosion of gasoline in the tire repair shop operated by Stuhldreher. The flames spread to the White Garage, then to the battery shop of Lukeman & Wood and the machine shop of Nash & Clevenger, all of which were destroyed. Eight of the twenty automobiles destroyed were new cars awaiting delivery to buyers; the others were privately owned.

DRIVER KILLS DEER

REDDING, Aug. 27.—Eight passengers on the Trinity Center-French Gulch stage had a novel experience when the driver stopped the stage to kill a big buck. As the stage was coming down the grade a mile this side of the Trinity divide, two bucks and three does were observed in a near-by clump of bushes. George Vance, the driver, carries a rifle for bandits. He stopped the automobile and fired a shot at one of the bucks and missed it. The buck did not move. Vance fired a second shot and missed again. Still the buck did not move. Vance fired a third shot and this one killed the four-pronged buck. A local butcher cut up the carcass and gave each passenger a good chunk of venison.

ORIENTALS BUY LAND

PARIS, Aug. 27.—The Armenian republic now has sufficient grain supplies for eight months, according to a telegram to the United States Grain Corporation executives here from Colonel William N. Haskell, Allied High Commissioner to Armenia, who has left that country to come to Paris with his staff of American army officers. The telegram says that the grain supplies will come largely from the harvest, there being a small amount remaining of 40,000 tons of flour sent from America.

Parlor Is Prepared for State Fair Pigs

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 27.—A completely furnished parlor, including rugs, furniture and electric lights, will be used by Mrs. E. A. Hardy, of Anchorage Farm, Orland, in which to show the good points of her highly-bred swine at the State Fair. This is a statement of fact. The Anchorage farm is owner of several of the highest priced and most valuable hogs in the world, and Mrs. Hardy proposes to have a competen lecturer tell the story of why it pays to breed good ones, using her own experience as a basis.

Natomas Baron Duke, grand champion Berkshire at the 1919 State Fair and at the California Live Stock Show, will be the model for the lecture. Actual demonstrations of balanced ration, care and handling will be given. Another famous boar owned by this ranche is Star Leader, reserve grand champion of the world at the P. P. I. E. Both these boars are of the type famous for early maturing and fattening qualitis. Mrs. Hardy and her two sons will have on exhibit a brood sow with litter of the fat, friendly little porkers which will be loaned to the nurses at the children's playground for the little ones to play with.

San Pablo Residents Oppose Water Charge

SAN PABLO, Aug. 27.—Whether fifty water consumers of San Pablo must pay a meter rate instead of a flat rate of 50 cents a month for water from the Eastbay Water Company will be decided following a hearing set by the State Railroad Commission today for October 1. Notice of the hearing has been sent to attorneys for the plaintiffs.

The complaint of the San Pablo residents recites that they gave over valuable water privileges to the company and in return were granted a perpetual right to obtain water from the company's reservoir at 50 cents per month. The company obtained a ruling placing all its patrons under a meter rate and, say the San Pablo people, is attempting to place a meter rate in substitution for the old contract.

Shipments of Sugar Unload at Richmond

RICHMOND, Aug. 27.—There was almost a congestion of the sugar traffic at the Richmond municipal wharf today when five boat loads of sugar were unloaded from the Crockett refinery of the California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining company. Owing to the scarcity of freight cars it was impossible to make up for the incoming cargoes.

Such has been the increase of freight handled at the municipal wharf during the past few months that the city council will place before the voters at the election of September 28 a proposition to bond the city for $150,000 to construct additional warehouse space.

Fifteen Children Will Aid Farmer

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The labor problem is no problem at all to Carl Paulson, who has just arrived here from Copenhagen with his wife and fifteen children to operate a farm in Minnesota. He explained that if he couldn't get the work done with this force, he'd send home for reserves—two married daughters and three married sons, and nine grandchildren.

PARIS PAPER PRINTS LEAGUE STAFF PAYROLL

PARIS, Aug. 27.—"The best of all reasons" why the League of Nations will be kept alive as long as humanly possible, is given by "Cri de Paris," which publishes a list of salaries paid league officials.

The secretary general is paid $50,000 per year. Two undersecretaries draw $10,000, and the private secretary of the chief secretary is paid $25,000.

The director of each of a dozen or so sections receives from $10,000 to $12,000, while members are paid $3,000 to $6,000.

The librarian in chief gets $5,000, while the director of the International Bureau of Labor takes $30,000.

Other salaries range from $5,000 to $9,000.

Although there are 357 employes, whenever the league decides on a meeting in Italy, or Spain, or Switzerland, practically all have to be moved in special trains with their expenses paid.

FRENCH GENERAL THINKS SOVIET IS EXHAUSTED

PARIS, Aug. 27.—Bolshevik reaction against Polish armies along the front east of Warsaw is not expected, at least for the present, by General Weygand, who is credited with having directed the defense of the Polish capital and hurled the Soviet armies back from that city, according to the Warsaw correspondent of the Petit Parisien.

General Weygand is quoted as saying the Poles should not advance so far eastward, but should entrench themselves along a line that can easily be held, so that they may be able to resist any effort on the part of soviet Russian to bring overwhelming forces against them in future.

"It is most difficult to be a prophet at this moment," the correspondent quotes the general as saying, "but we can for the moment feel reassured, for the Bolsheviki undoubtedly used everything available to take Warsaw.

"These resources were mediocre, especially in artillery, a large part of which has been captured by the Poles. At the beginning of their offensive, however, they had everything in their favor and were beaten.

"General Wrangel seems strong and well equipped, and in his South Russian progress, which is not haphazard, but systematic, one gets the impression that he is administering skillfully in occupied territories so that he will not, like General Denikine, leave revolt behind him.

"We may then be optimistic, and I leave Warsaw with an excellent impression of the situation and full of hope, but am convinced that hard work is needed to make the Polish army worthy of its task."

CONDEMNATION ASKED

The City of Oakland, through City Attorney H. L. Hagan, has instituted condemnation proceedings in the superior court against H. G. Prince & Company, the Derby Estate Company and others for the purpose of acquiring property needed for opening East Ninth and East Tenth streets, between Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth avenues. The property is 325 feet in length.

Modern Home Electrical Solves Domestic Problem

MRS. F. T. DIECKMAN, hostess (left), is welcoming MRS. ROBERT SIBLEY to the Modern Home Electrical in Lakeshore Highlands. JOSEPH E. CAINE (left) and ROBERT SIBLEY (right) are in the background.

When Jules Verne foretold the wonders that would be wrought by man, he unleashed some ideas that are still remotely possible; he sent forth other concepts that a very few decades ago were taken as the fantastic children of a mind whose conceptions were for amusement only. Had Jules Verne described a Home Electrical when he wrote many of his marvelous works, it would have been considered equally impossible as his "Trip to the Moon." Today, however, modern science has succeeded in taming the strange element first cajoled out of the sky with a key and a piece of string, and the results of the taming are being demonstrated daily in the world's most modern home, the Home Electrical, at Longridge road and Grosvenor Place in the beautiful Lakeshore Highlands.

SOLVES PROBLEM

Every thing that is modern in [illegible] in the Home Electrical, in its furnishings, its surroundings, its every feature and the free demonstrations that are being given daily are proving a source of delight and education to modern woman in this modern age. The domestic problem of help is solved for the householder the moment she crosses the threshold of the Home Electrical, for no servant other than the obedient, unseen and ever present slave is needed where proper appliances are provided to harness his energies.

Forty-five of these little servants are at the bidding of the householder in a Home Electrical. More are being developed. In Oakland's Home Electrical one beats the eggs, whips the cream, heats the water, plays the piano, cooks the meals, makes the ice, warms the house, cools the house, provides the light, does any one of the almost countless offices with the willing servant ever at hand.

Home Electrical is beautifully furnished. The rugs, the refined furniture in bed rooms, living room, breakfast, dining room, represent the last minute effort of the artist and designer to produce something unique, elegant and enduring.

DEVELOP MODERN HOME

A large number of the community's most energetic men, representing dozens of business houses and manufacturers have given their time for months to the development of this modern home. Some of those who have served on the committees follow:

California Electrical Co-operative Campaign, representing all branches of the electrical industry in the state—Lee Newbert, Pacific Gas & Electric Co.; J. Harris, Pacific States Electric Co.; Clyde Chandlin, State Association of Electrical Contractors and Dealers; Howard W. Angus, Electrical Co-operative Co.

Arrangements committee — Hugh Kimball, chairman; Frank H. Woodward, Frank A. Leach Jr., Leo Greenhood.

Supervising committee—Hugh Kimball, George Curtis, Richard Smith, John M. Gregory.

House committee — Robert Oyler, Robert King, Lou Spott, H. England, R. McDonald, Ernest Crowson, Bert Rea.

Illuminations committee — Frank Leach, Frank H. Woodward, Bert Rea, Gus Kohls, Hugh Kimball.

Appliance committee—L. P. Van Atta, John M. Gregory.

Demonstrations committee—J. A. Baker, R. P. Smith.

Oakland's Home Electrical is open every day from 10 o'clock in the morning to 10 o'clock at night, and demonstrations are constantly going on. The home may be reached by either the Lakeshore Key Route cars direct or the Lakeshore avenue car E, transferring to Lakeshore Highlands car at Trestle Glen.

DON'T NEED A COURT FOR SCOUT BOYS, SAYS JUDGE

No Boy Scout has yet appeared in a court in Alameda county on a criminal charge, according to a statement yesterday at the Rotary Club lunch by Superior Court Judge E. C. Robinson.

Judge Robinson said he was planning an experiment in form in which Scouts would be asked to visit the various disciplinary institutions for boys and make friends of the inmates.

"Good companions and clean environment are large factors in the development of a boy and the Scouts offer this, and contact with them will help the reform school youths," said Judge Robinson.

Incidentally Judge Robinson told the Rotarians that 90 per cent of minors placed on probation make good.

LUMBER CONCERN MUST PAY BACK $859,000 LOAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Under the terms of a report filed in United States district court today by Harry M. Wright, master in chancery, the Coos Bay Lumber Company must repay $859,000, secured by the trustees under a trust agreement in 1915, when the concern faced financial difficulties. The fund was used to re-establish the company and was a loan and not a gift, the master reported to the court.

The fund was raised when C. A. Smith, Oregon lumber king, and his wife, Johanna Smith, placed his rich holdings in the hands of the Coos Bay Lumber Company and named a board of trustees to manage the huge properties. Later receivers were named. The company is again financially sound and and the trustees brought action to secure a return of the trust fund. Some shareholders opposed its return.

COUNCIL STAYS FALLON OPENING

Furthern proceedings on the proposed opening of Fallon street from Sixth street to First street were halted when the City Council unanimously voted down the ordinance, previously passed to print, ordering the acquisition of the property necessary for the opening. The Council's action this morning was based on the discovery that the property concerned was incorrectly described in the proceedings and that in addition no budget provision has been made for the improvement.

hTe improvement of Fourth street between Harrison and Oak streets was ordered by the Council after a hearing of opposition from residents that resulted in the protests filed against the work being overruled. Protests against the improvement of Harmon street were sustained and proceedings for the work ordered discontinued when it was found that a majority protest had been presented

A petition was received by the Council from residents in the vicinity of Suter and Abbey streets asking for the instalaltion of a street light at the point. The request was turned over to the department of public health and safety.

OPEN LETTER IS ISSUED TO URGE WALLACE CHOICE

A general appeal to the Republicans in the Eastbay district to unite on Wallace for senator as the one man who can carry the Republican party through to victory in November was issued this morning from the Wallace headquarters by a committee of 100 headed by C. C. Young, Judge Fred St. Sure, Joseph King, Charles Spear, George Schmidt and John W. Whillips.

The letter emphasizes Wallace's record, as a public official, first in Los Angeles and then as lieutenant-governor. It points out that he has been a successful business man and that the national need today is business men in public office.

SOUTH WANTS SENATOR.

The desire of Southern California for representation in the Senate is pointed out as a big factor. Thus far the north has claimed both senators.

With reference to the prohibition issue, the letter says:

"By the adoption of the eighteenth amendment, the liquor question is closed. Nothing short of the repeal of the amendment should reopen it. The federal constitution is our supreme law and our laws must be enforced if the government is to endure. A. J. Wallace is the only California candidate for the Senate who has publically stated that he will permit no weakening of the liquor enforcement law.

CITRUS GROWERS' VIEW.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—C. C. Chapman, of Fullerton, big citrus fruit grower, declared in a statement issued today to Edgerton Shore, campaign manager for A. J. Wallace, that the citrus growers of the state will support Wallace because he is the only candidate for United States senator who really understands their business and who is an assured supporter of protective tariff laws.

Chapman says others can make campaign speeches but Wallace can be counted on to do the work and predicts a big majority for Wallace in the primaries and a substantial victory over Phelan in the November election.

Beautifully Curly, Wavy Hair—In Three Hours!

Girls, have you tried the silmerine method of curling your hair? It's simply grand! Gives you the most beautiful, natural-looking curls and waves within three hours—keeps the hair soft, silky and glossy—and nothing harmful or messy about it. The curls will last the longest time—in spite of heat, wind or dampness. You won't have to be continually fixing and fussing with loose, flying hair. It's foolish to singe and blister and deaden your tresses with a hot curling iron—and altogether unnecessary now.

Liquid silmerine is pleasant to use, [illegible] a bottle from your druggist today, follow the simple directions—the first trial will make it your steadfast friend.—Advertisement.

Better Babies

The crusade for better babies has spread from coast to coast, and taken firm hold of American mothers. Few women realize how much the ill health of the mother influences the unborn child, both physically and mentally. Women who suffer from mysterious pains, backache, nervousness, mental depression, headaches, etc., should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, which for nearly forty years has been the standard remedy for these ailments.—Advertisement.

TRAIL OF GRAIN LEADS OFFICERS TO GREAT STILL

MODESTO, Aug. 27.—What is said to be the largest illicit whisky distillery discovered in California since the enactment of the prohibition amendment has been uncovered by Sheriff R. L. Dallas, of Stanislaus county, and Sheriff A. B. Turner, of Mariposa county, when a still with a capacity of 2,000 gallons a week was found.

Fred Owens and W. E. Blake, who were taken into custody at Turlock Sunday, are said to have been operators of the still.

The still was found in Nigger Gulch, a remote point in Mariposa county and accessible only by a narrow and unfrequented trail. For several months Sheriff Dallas has been working on the case, and following the arrest of Owens and Blake, secured information which made the discovery of the still possible.

No one was at the still when the officers found it. More than 100 gallons of whisky was found in barrels and 16 fifty-gallon barrels of corn mash whisky was ready for the still. The value of the liquor was placed at more than $40,000.

The still was discovered only after an all-night search. A trail of corn and rye spilled from the packs which were being taken into the canyon disclosed the trail which led tortuously around the canyon.

U. S. PROTESTS OLYMPIC AWARD

ANTWERPT, Aug. 27.—Americans won the first three places in the spring board diving finals of the Olympic games today. L. E. Keuhn, Multnomah Athletic club, Portland, Ore., first; C. Pinkston, Olympic club, San Francisco, second, and L. J. Balbach, New York A. C., third.

ANTWERP, Aug. 27.—The American athletes today formally protested the decision by which Roth, Sweden, was declared winner over Nat Pendleton, of New York, in the bout for the heavyweight catch-as-catch-can Olympic championship.

There were no falls, but the Americans contended Pendleton was an easy winner on points, he having the Swede on the defensive most of the time.

The Americans annexed but one wrestling title—the featherweight—in which an American also was runner-up. After an exciting tussle, C. D. Ackerly, of Cornell, defeated G. N. Gerson, of Pennsylvania.

ONE MATCH LEFT

In the other finals, Antilla, Finland, defeated Svensson, Sweden, lightweight, and Leino, Finland, defeated [illegible], Finland, middleweight. Larson, Finland and Courant, Switzerland, were to wrestle for the light-heavyweight title today.

The American water polo team was eliminated by England in the semi-finals, losing 7 to 2.

Miss Ethelda Bleibtrey, of New York, set a new Olympic record for the woman's 300-meter free stroke swim, 4:41 2-5, which was 1 3-5 seconds faster than the mark made by Miss Fannie Durack of Australia in 1912.

WANT "Y" TO HELP

The Olympic committee has announced its formal recognition of the South American, Far Eastern and Indian Empire in Olympian athletics and petitioned the Y. M. C. A. to lend its physical department to world athletics under the patronage of the committee.

The South American games, which will be held in Brazil, will have the same status as the extra Olympiad, which was held in Athens in 1906. A Y. M. C. A. physical director has been appointed trainer of the Brazilian team. His name will be announced later.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The entire British Olympic team has jointly written a letter to the London Times protesting vigorously against the movement in England favoring the withdrawal of Great Britain from future Olympic meets. The letter declares that, contrary to the statements of Sir Theodore Cook, member of the British Olympic council, and others, not a single example of bad sportsmanship or ill feeling resulted from the present Olympic games or the last international gathering at Stockholm.

Girls Vie to Give Dying Soldier Blood

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 27.—Two Los Angeles girls are vieing for the honor of supplying Edward C. Armentrout, soldier patient in a military hospital, with one pint of blood. Physicians said the operation will be necessary to save his life. The girls are Maude Davis and Vivian Butler.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING TAKES PLACE.

One hundred relatives and friends were guests last evening of the home Miss Mary E. Nicholl in this city to witness the marriage of her niece, Miss Lulu Wells, and Ralph Ensign Merritt. The wedding was one of the prettiest home ceremonies of the late summer. It took place beneath a bower of bloom in the living room with Rev. Howard Kerr, pastor of the Broklyn Presbyterian church, officiating. All through the home flowers in the pastel shades lent a pleasing effect as a setting for the nuptials. The bride is one of the most popular members of the Chi Omega sorority at the University of California. She wore a handsome wedding gown of white satin trimmed in lace and with it a bridal veil of Rose point lace, an heirloom in the family. It formed the train and was arranged in coronet fashion at the coiffure. The gown was embroidered in a rose pattern of seed pearls. Orchids and gardenias were used in ahe shower bouquet arranged with tulle bows and satin streamers.

Miss Grace Willson, maid of honor, was in apricot-toned taffeta over which was wrn a lace gown. She carried a shower bouquet of Irish elegance roses. Little Elizabeth Layne, flower girl, was in French blue taffeta and carried a gilded basket filled with rose petals.

A wedding supper was served after the informal reception.

Merritt and his bride have gone to Southern California on a motor trip, and on their return will occupy a new bungalow in Livermore.

COAL ADVANCES; FREIGHT BLAMED

Coal dealers of the Eastbay today advanced the price of coal $2 a ton, acting concurrently with the Retail Coal Dealers' Association of San Francisco. The increase, it is said, is made necessary by the increased freight rates.

The advance puts the following prices in effect:

Utah coal, $18.50 a ton.

Rock Springs or Wyoming coal, $19.50.

New Mexico or American block coal, $20.50.

There is practically no American block coal in the market. Neither is there any Wellington coal from Australia or British Columbia, as the Australian mines have been tied up with labor trouble and the British Columbia industries are consuming the entire output of the northern mines.

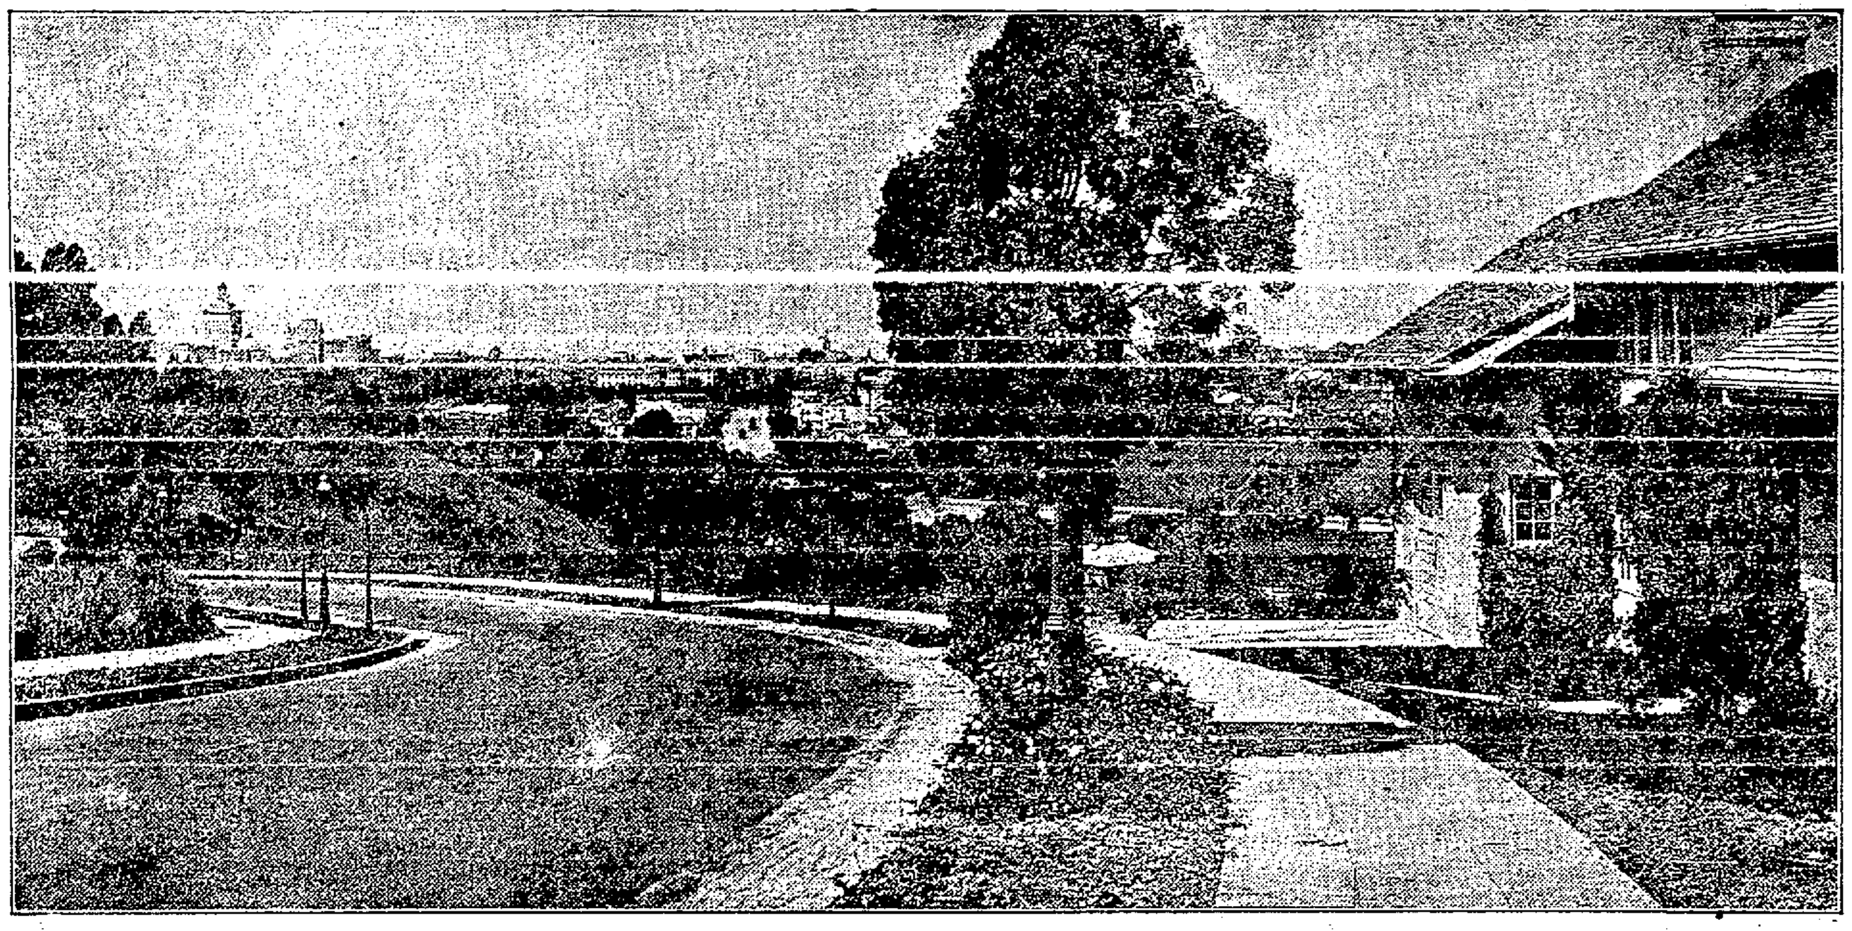
Only 160 homesites in tract



View from Lakemont, Showing Lakeside Park, Lake Merritt and the Civic Center of Oakland

ONLY 2 BLOCKS FROM LAKE MERRITT

ONLY 6 MINUTES FROM THE CITY HALL

Nothing offered in the last four years even compares with Lakemont in location, climate, improvements, view, restrictions and price.

AND IT IS ACTUALLY BEING OFFERED FOR ONLY HALF THE PRICE ASKED BY THE FORMER OWNERS

The Fred T. Wood Company, the firm which broke all sales records in the history of Oakland and Piedmont in the sale of Lakewood Park, The Oaks and Lakeshore Terrace, has purchased Lakemont (formerly Haddon Hill) and the same low prices and immediate, big and sure profits for the buyer will prevail in Lakemont. This property has been purchased by the Wood Company at a very low figure and the prices asked just cover the cost of improvements and acreage prices of the property forty years ago.

Read this carefully—it will pay you.

Location

The location of Lakemont is ideal. It is elevated and yet sheltered. You get a view of Oakland and Piedmont and the wonderful panorama of Lake Merritt, the Golden Gate and the Piedmont Hills.

Improvements

Lakemont was designed by Mark Daniels, a great landscape engineer. The streets are 60 feet wide, are made of a superior quality of oiled macadam, and follow the natural contour of the land. Many rare and beautiful trees have been planted. All the wires have been placed underground—the only tract in the San Francisco bay region with this feature. The cost alone of the improvements in Lakemont totals close to $200,000.

Transportation

Lakemont is within one block of Lakeshore avenue and two blocks from the Lakeshore Key Route, giving direct transportation to San Francisco.

Restrictions

The most rigid restrictions as to race and color. No apartments, flats, hospitals, sanitariums or stores.

Approach

The approach to Lakemont is without parallel in all of Oakland or Piedmont. Grand avenue, bordered by handsome homes and skirting Lake Merritt and Lakeside Park. Lakeshore avenue, one of the finest of all Oakland thoroughfares, is but one block from the tract. From the south the approach is by way of Lakeshore boulevard.

Values

Property values are daily increasing in Oakland, particularly in the lake district. Since Lakemont is absolutely the last close-in lake district property remaining unsold, it is certain that with the development of the tract values will double in a short time.

Parking System

The parking system of Lakemont is unique and of the highest type. An artistic feature is the beautiful urns placed at the intersection of the streets. With the magnificent view from every portion of Lakemont and the class of homes to be built there, Lakemont will continue to be the showplace of Oakland.

Terms

Very liberal terms. Ten per cent down and one per cent a month. No interest until July 1, 1921. Ten per cent off for cash.

How to Get to Lakemont

From San Francisco take Key Route boat, then Lakeshore Key Route train to Grand and Lake Park Avenues, within two blocks of tract. From Oakland take E car and get off at Excelsior avenue. Or motor out Grand avenue to Lakeshore avenue, or from East Oakland come by way of Lakeshore boulevard to the tract office at Excelsior and Lakeshore avenues. Then ask the salesmen with the blue ribbons or phone Lakeside 243 and we will send auto for you.

Vanderlip Sees Behind Curtain Concealing Russia

(This, the second installment of the interview with Mr. Frank A. Vanderlip, will be followed by a statement by this financier on the Japanese situation).

By FLOYD MACGRIFF.

(Copyright, 1920, by International News Service)

NEW YORK, Aug 27.—"Let us lift the Russian curtain and see for ourselves what is going on in Russia."

This was the positive treatment suggested today by Frank A. Vanderlip, world-famed financier, when asked by the International News Service to comment on the Russian situation which has been baffling the world.

"There is a tremendous ignorance in this country of what is actually going on in Russia," Vanderlip stated. "It is needless to say that I'm not a Bolshevik," Vanderlip added, laughingly. "In fact, the great majority of Americans are not Bolsheviks. There is a wide ignorance, I believe, as to what Bolshevism of Communist Socialism means.

THROUGH A CURTAIN, OPAQUELY

"We cannot understand Russia if we try to look at her through a curtain."

Vanderlip suggested that an American mission, either official or unofficial, but unmistakably impartial, might do this country a good service by visiting Russia, just as British labor and other Eupean delegations have done theirs—and reporting to our people the actual conditions, problems and needs of Russia, minus propaganda trimmings.

"Of course, it might be that the Russian Soviet government would not permit such an impartial survey of their country," said Vanderlip. "But we might try. At present our information about Russia consists of second or third hand.

PROBE OF CONDITIONS, CURE

"There is no sentiment of consequence in this country toward assisting anything of a Communistic-Socialist trend, which clashed with American ideals. But we ought to find for our own benefit just what the present situation in Russia is."

"I do not think we should make any move as regards Russia until we first have accurate information upon which way to go," said Vanderlip. "But to work in the dark, as at present, seems absurd."

"What do you think of Secretary of State Colby's Russian note which sought to drive a wedge between the Russian people and their Moscow government?" he was asked.

REDS CONTROL NEWS SOURCES

"I think it will prove ineffective," Vanderlip declared. "With most of Russia illiterate and the Bolshevists controlling all the printing presses, I fear it will be difficult to drown the Bolshevik regime with a stream of words from Washington."

Vanderlip was asked whether he believed the allies were genuinely interested in making the League of Nations an effective, full-grown organization to keep the world's peace and to shoulder important international burdens within the next five or ten years.

"The allies," said Vanderlip, "by their own actions recently, have shown they do not intend that.

GARNERING FRUITS OF WAR

"There are [illegible] signs that the allies are more interested today in garnering the fruits of victory and enforcing the peace treaties than in establishing an effective league of nations.

"The league provides a certain definite machinery, or specifications for machinery, for keeping the world's peace, but may I inquire whether the leading European nations today are actuated by the moral principles and spirit so essential to operate such machinery?

"Are they not more interested at present in furthering their own ends and ambitions than in establishing those things intended by the league's covenant?

USE POWER TO HELP SELVES

"As I see it, England, France and Italy have no intention of letting slip from their hand the enforcement of the peace treaties. They are not willing today to delegate their enforcement to any league other than themselves.

"The league covenant is like a fire engine. Efficiently operated in the right spirit and with co-operation of its crew, a fire can be quelled. But when each firemanration has a different idea as to what the fire engine is for or how it should be operated and when it should be started in the business of putting out fires, it requires no little hesitancy on the part of any thoughtful man as to whether he will be a fireman on that engine."

DAMAGE TO U. S. ALREADY DONE

Asked whether he thought the United States could remain out of the League of Nations, just as long as the league is kept ineffective by the allies, without injuring the American [illegible], Vanderlip said:

"We have injured our foreign status already about as much as is conceivable. Standing out will not hurt us."

PLANE SAVES FOREST.

RIVERSIDE, Aug 27.—A fire patrol airplane from March field, near here, discovered a blaze which covered 100 acres of field near Declez, eight miles west of Riverside, today. County fire wardens notified by officers at the army airplane station, extinguished the fire after several hours' hard fighting.

FELT LIKE SHE'D HAVE TO GIVE UP

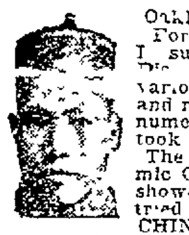
"So many people seemed to be taking Tanlac with such fine results that I tried it myself, and my only regret is that I didn't take it sooner," said Mrs. G. T. Dennis of 627 East Twenty-eighth street, Los Angeles, while telling of the benefits she derived from the medicine.

"For something over two years I had an awful case of stomach trouble, one of those chronic cases when I just seemed to feel distressed and nauseated all the time. No matter what I ate it disagreed with me and I had that same miserable feeling that would last from one meal to the next. Gas would form on my stomach and make me feel like I was suffocating and my heart would beat so fast it frightened me. My strength and energy all seemed to leave me and I became extremely nervous and irritable. My housework was a burden and it was a task for me to even take care of my little baby. Lots of days I felt like I would break down and have to give up and I was beginning to wonder where it was all going to end.

"But Tanlac was just the thing I needed and I am so glad I took it for it has brought me health and happiness. In all I have taken five bottles and today I feel perfectly well in every respect. The stomach trouble has all disappeared and I never feel the least bit distressed no matter what I eat. I am not at all nervous and feel ever so much stronger. I have gained several pounds in weight and can now do all my housework and take care of my baby without one bit of trouble. I can never forget the good Tanlac has done me and I am always glad to tell anyone about it."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by The Owl Drug Company stores and Eberly's Quality Pharmacy, Alameda.—Advertisement.

BLOOD DISEASE CURED



Oakland, July 30 1920

For more than ten years I suffered from 'Blood [illegible] various parts of my body and running pains. I tried numerous doctors and took what is known as "The Sixty-six Hyperdermic Cure." A blood test showed two X's. Then I tried the FONG WAN CHINESE HERBS. After taking them for about three months I had another blood test made. It showed that my blood was clean and free from disease. Words cannot express my gratitude for being freed from this terrible condition.

Stomach Trouble.

There are many who should be greatly encouraged to know that stomach troubles can be cured. Mrs. T. E. Hullinger, Mansfield, Ohio, was sick for three months with stomach trouble and constipation. "The first dose did me more good than all of the medicine I had previously taken and by taking two bottles of the tablets I was positively cured." For sale by Osgood Bros. MY HEART and HUSBAND

by ADELE GARRISON

Of What Mrs. Durkee Accused Lillian Underwood

For a fleeting moment his face was like that of a disappointed small boy, one who has prepared a Christmas surprise and finds it discounted. I longed passionately to call out to him, to put my arms around his neck, but with Mrs. Durkee mischievously watching I could do nothing except smile at him. The next moment he had caught himself up, was saying heartily:

"Somebody's beaten me to it, Madge. Who's the fairy godmother—Grantland, I suppose."

"Yes," little Mrs. Durkee answered cheekily. "I should think you'd be terribly jealous."

"Oh, I am fiendishly so," laughed Dicky, but I interrupted peremptorily.

"Dicky! Please, dear, show me what you have brought."

His face brightened and he came over to the bed.

"It isn't much," he said apologetically, "but I remembered how you loved the delphiniums and how disappointed you were when they didn't do well, so I've hunted all over creation to get these things."

He was opening the box as he spoke and displayed to my view the most exquisitely tinted blue and white delphiniums I had ever seen. Lillian's voice interrupted my rapturous admiration of them.

"Well!" she drawled. "I think this is about the time to produce the blue and white Chinese vase which I kept from Mrs. Durkee and make a place upon your table for these."

For the first three or four days of my enforced inaction on account of my fractured rib Dicky was the most devoted of attendants upon my sick room.

He went about the task of keeping me entertained and comfortable exactly as if I were a new commission for an illustration. His enthusiasm in devising schemes to please me and to amuse me apepared unbounded, and I know that he must have neglected his own work shamefully, for he did not go to his studio at all for fully three days after my injury.

From Maj. Grantland there came no sign, not even an inquiry at the door, although I guessed from little Mrs. Durkee's mysteriously important air as she daily made the most minute inquiries as to my condition that the officer was ascertaining the degree of my improvement from her. Sensitive beyond all reason, with a Puritanical sense of honor, I knew that he would consider it an unpardonable offence for him to be the means of exciting Dicky's jealousy by even a trivial act.

What little Mrs. Durkee had seen fit to tell him concerning the episode of the flowers no mortal man or woman could tell or guess. And incongruous as a confidential intimacy between Her Fluffiness and Maj. Grantland might be, I knew enough of his story and of his loneliness to be sure that the feather-headed, warm-hearted, motherly little woman was just the type to appeal to his mother-hungry heart. I had no doubt that if he cherished a romantic secret of any sort it was already in the possession of my little neighbor, whether willingly confided or unwittingly betrayed to her keen feminine instinct.

Dicky's observance of my every mood, his careful attention to every wish, left me no moments for contemplative analysis. But when the inevitable day came, the day—which I, knowing Dicky so well, placidly anticipated—that my husband grew restless at the prison-like atmosphere of the sick room, and suddenly discovering that his orders were tremendously piling up, flitted back to his studio atmosphere, I found myself with nothing better to do than to speculate idly concerning the romantic, mysterious personality whom I knew as Maj. Grantland.

His dramatic reappearance on my life's stage, his restored sight, startling enough in itself to be the subject of any one's curiosity, the whole odd personality of the man began to occupy a greater portion of my thoughts than I myself realized in the days following Dicky's return to the studio.

Little Mrs. Durkee consciously or unconsciously fixed my attention more definitely upon the officer upon her visit the day after Dicky had returned to his work.

"Where's the Dicky-bird?" she chirped as she flitted into the room. "Has he flown the coop? I thought he would before this. He's lasted a great deal longer than I thought he would. He never was cut out for a nurse."

"He makes a wonderfully good one," I returned loyally.

"Of course," she said. "He does anything well that he sets out to do."

I imagined that her tone conveyed [illegible] of me was a disagreeable task which Dicky with set teeth had sworn to perform or die in the attempt.

WHAT LILLIAN NEGLECTED

"You people haven't taken any care at all of the poor major's roses," the little woman next exclaimed, pouting petulantly, and making the leap from one subject to another with the charming inconsequentiality so characteristic of her. "See, they are all drooping, and they were so lovely [illegible]."

"Roses are perishable things," Lillian declared sententiously from the big window seat where she was bending over a drawing board. In order to alleviate my loneliness, Lillian, the morning of Dicky's first departure for the studio had brought her work over, was doing an important commission between her self-appointed task as nurse. But at my little neighbor's comment upon the roses she put her work rather abruptly away, and rising went to one of the vases of roses and looked at the blossoms critically.

"They really ought all to be thrown away," she announced. "I should have attended to it before this."

"I'll bet you haven't given them a drink once," Mrs. Durkee pouted.

"You win," Lillian answered evenly. "Katie attends to the flowers."

"Oh, Katie." The tone consigned my little maid to the lowest depths of inefficiency. "Well, I'm glad my nice major can't see how little you appreciate his flowers. I've the biggest seven-eighths of a notion to tell him to send his next bath to me."

"I think that would be a highly desirable arrangement," lauhged Lillian, but I am sure that beneath her jocularity lay an aversion to Maj. Grantland's flowers. And she had [illegible] Durkee. Katie had attended to the flowers, but only under Lillian's direction. And while I had heard my friend daily direct Katie to change the water in the vase containing Dicky's delphiniums, I had heard no instructions whatever concerning Maj. Grantland's roses.

Sure Way To Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.

The Stork Brings to Oakland Another PIGGLY WIGGLY Store

Tomorrow at 5525 College Avenue

In the Building Formerly Occupied by the Rockridge Grocery the 5th PIGGLY WIGGLY Store Will Be Born

About two weeks later the 6th will be born at 4916 Telegraph Avenue and the 7th at 528-530 Fifteenth Street, the old Cushing store. Remodeling will start on the first of September for a PIGGLY WIGGLY at the corner of Adeline and Alcatraz and so on until the stork has delivered a PIGGLY WIGGLY convenient to every housewife in Alameda County.

PIGGLY WIGGLY Stores are today operating throughout the United States in a total of 28 States and in a total of 145 Cities and with every one who has seen and knows PIGGLY WIGGLY there has been but one verdict, and that is that a new era in retail distribution of food products has arrived.

Decade after decade and age after age there have been attempts theoretically to make the path short from producer and manufacturer to consumer and to make the cost small, yet not until PIGGLY WIGGLY came was there ever a practical way to do this.

In a PIGGLY WIGGLY Store there is that cleanliness that is seen in a well-regulated home pantry of the housewife, and in truth PIGGLY WIGGLY is a large pantry for use by the housewife and one that can be depended upon every day. From every market of the entire country the buying arrangements for PIGGLY WIGGLY stretch out and touch, and from these markets come the best that can be had and all of this is for the choice of the housewife as may suit her purse and as may suit her own judgment of comparative values.

You wait upon yourself in a PIGGLY WIGGLY Store and while you are doing this more than a hundred others can be doing likewise and still each one can make a choice and appraise a value without interruption or suggestion from any one else.

There are no clerks to haggle with and none to give preference to one customer over another.

There is no salesmanship in a PIGGLY WIGGLY Store except in a mute appeal of the merchandise itself and as the swinging price tags may indicate its value.

By eliminating delivery and telephone charges, bad accounts and sky-blue salesmanship it is possible to reduce prices on goods and the customer is given the benefit.

MUSICAL DRAMA IS BIG SUCCESS

By ROY HARRISON DANFORTH

Maker of many excellent musical things in the past, Paul Steindorff outdid himself at the Greek theater in Berkeley last evening with a production of Saint-Saens' beautiful but exacting drama, "Samson et Dalila." The assistance of Julie Claussen, velvet-voiced mezzo of the Chicago forces, was of indubitable value, but beyond any single detail, was always apparent the director's governing genius.

The reaches of the Greek theater stage were barely adequate to the demand for footing space he put upon it. The production was, in fact, thus characterized throughout. It was a use of masses that made it unusually effective. Of the stage machinery [illegible] Dagon's temple crashing in dust at the close there was none, but when it came to the human element it was no more lacking in numbers than it was in quality. The chorus was up to its reputed two hundred membership. The ballet was satisfactory in gross as well as individual dimensions. The orchestra was not stinted.

CHORAL WORK GOOD

Beyond these numerical considerations, too, was the constant evidence of Steindorff thoroughness. The choral work was better than anything he has offered us in the past. Balance, unity, enthusiasm were always evident; power almost always so. The orchestral accompaniment was brilliantly rendered. Anita Peters Wright had run the choragus a close second for her ballet figures were ingenius both in their planning and their execution.

One comes back gladly to mention Miss Claussen as co-star of the production with Steindorff. Miss Claussen's voice, a true mezzo and of excellent range, incorporates two components not always allied; it has dramatic fervor and evenness, too. It lacks some of the seductive blandishment that Dalila would seem to need, yet its textural beauty never is in question. For instance, to the "Mon coeur s'ouvre at ta voix," focal point of the opera's entanglements, it rose gloriously adequate.

HAND'S SAMSON

John Hand's Samson was one of volume if not delicacy. It was sufficient to the stronger side of the part; at other times it would have profited by more shading and finesse. Samson is, however, a declamatory part at best, and Hand's recitative, particularly because of its fluent articulation, is quite acceptable. Len Barnes as the high priest and William F. Meyers, a basso with profound and powerful voice, were other contributors to the evening's excellence.

Several stage pictures of beauty in both color and grouping acclaimed the ability of George Lask, stage director. Miss Zelma McDonough gave a charming solo dance with the ballet's aid.

The coasts of the British isles are so well supplied with light houses and lightships that a vessel sailing round these islands by night need only be out of sight of a lantern six times.

Voting Rights Used, and in Patriotic Way by Civic and Fraternal Bodies, Is Claim

That members of Oakland's fraternal and civic organizations are "loyal and patriotic" in exercising their voting rights was the assertion today of George W. Langan, chairman of the registration and voting committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. Langan based his assertion on reports received from various organizations.

The Merchants' Exchange reported through Wilber Walker, vice president that at a recent meeting a poll showed that twenty-seven of the twenty-eight present were registered and had voted at the last election.

Simon Peter, quartermaster of Appomattox Post, G. A. R., reported fifty-four veterans of sixty-two present had voted at the last election and fifty-six were registered.

The Oakland League of the California Federation of Housewives' Leagues had forty-five present, forty-four registered and forty-four voted.

Budget Fails to Provide For Extra Teachers, Claim

The possibility of the local schools not being financially able to run for the full school year was the subject of conferences held today by school department heads as a result of the council's action yesterday in adopting the municipal budget for 1920-21 with only $227,626.50 appropriated for the school department.

According to statements by Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter and Assistant Superintendents E. Morris Cox and Lewis B. Avery, who were in conference on the issue this morning, the council appropriation will allow of absolutely no increase in teachers' salaries over the salaries paid last year, and will only partly take care of the salaries of the fifty new teachers added to the Oakland teaching forces.

The statements were made in reply to the declaration of the commissioners yesterday when the budget was adopted, that the money provided for the school department would allow an increase of $120 a year in the salary of each teacher.

NOT PROVIDED FOR.

According to the school department officials, the sum of $156,300 was provided by the city last year in a levy of 10 cents on the $100 assessed valuation, to bring the teachers' wages up to their present schedule. The funds provided yesterday will pay that amount, thus maintaining the salaries at their present status, but will not cover the $90,000 needed for salaries of the additional teachers.

A total of $717,725 was asked of the city by the school department this year, including $156,300 for the preservation of last year's salaries, $348,600 to provide each teacher with an increase of $420 a year in accordance with the teachers' salary campaign request, $111,000 for the salaries of 50 additional teachers, $81,825 for the city school building fund and $20,000 for salary increases for school custodians.

In addition to the sum of $208,654 for teachers' salaries provided in the council appropriation in this year's budget, the sum of $16,365 will be allowed for school custodians' increases and $4091 for an open-air gymnasium at the Oakland high school.

ALLOWS NO INCREASE

Figures prepared by the department today, based on the registration statistics of Wednesday night, showed an increase of 947 pupils in the elementary schools alone and an increase of 835 in the day high schools. Thirty-four elementary school classes have 50 or more students in one class room.

The claim of the Oakland teachers that the tax rate fixed yesterday allows them no increase over last year and does little more than replace the $156,000 needed to maintain the present salary level, was outlined today for the teachers of the city by F. H. Boren, chairman of their special committee. Boren's explanation follows:

"Thursday, August 26, being the last day for the presentation of the final budget, representatives of the general committee, supported by their legal adviser, appeared before the council to make a determined effort to secure the necessary appropriation. On that day the council, by a vote of three to two, took back from certain funds to which the 15 cents had been previously distributed, the amount of 12¾ cents.

"The part of this appropriated for teachers' salaries will produce approximately $208,654 for elementary school teachers. In making this appropriation the council members claimed that they were doing three things: (1) Bringing the salaries to the basis of last year, (2) providing for new teachers, (3) adding $120 to last year's schedule, thereby bringing the elementary maximum to $1290.

"Your committee, supported by figures supplied by the school accountant, pointed out to the commissioners that the amount voted will not accomplish the results claimed. To even the most casual observer it is plainly apparent that $208,654 cannot possibly replace the $156,000 needed to bring the old teachers up to the schedule of last year, add the $90,000 needed for new teachers, most of whom are already employed, and furnish the $102,000 needed to raise the salaries of approximately 850 teachers by $120 per year. No amount of figure juggling by any so-called efficiency expert can make the two sides balance. The conclusion is plain to your committee. Either the commissioners were misled by figures presented by their expert or they deliberately camouflaged the situation, knowing that they could not do what they claimed.

"The action of the council is apparently final, as we are informed by our legal adviser that the budget as adopted cannot be amended at this late date. Action of the council was purposely delayed until the last day for action.

"The board of supervisors will fix their tax levy not later than September 7. We have every reason to believe that we shall receive fair treatment at their hands."

Traffic Officers Want Changes in Motor Laws

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—The National Traffic Officers' Association today closed its annual five-day convention in the Civic Auditorium with the submission of important committee reports, election of officers, the selection of the next convention city and the adoption of a resolution changing the name of the organization to the International Traffic Officers' Association, in view of the increasing scope of its activity.

Among the most important measures before the convention today was a committee recommendation that the proposed uniform motor vehicle act incorporate an abstract of title clause in connection with the sale or transfer of an automobile as a final and effective measure for preventing automobile thefts.

LEGISLATION TO STOP THEFTS

If the recommendation is adopted, the proposed uniform motor vehicle act will make it compulsory for all owners of automobiles to possess an abstract of title to their machines, such abstract to be turned over to the purchaser of the car with the bill of sale.

This law, it is pointed out, will assure the prospective purchaser the same degree of protection given to the purchaser of real estate, inasmuch as the abstract of title will embody a complete record of the machine and its ownership and legal status from the time it leaves the dealer.

Chicago was unanimously selected as the next convention city. Cleveland and Chicago and Buffalo were in the fight to get the convention. Buffalo made a strong plea and inaugurated a spirited eleventh-hour campaign through the medium of campaign buttons and literature.

SYLVESTER RE-ELECTED

Lieutenant of Police Samuel Sylvester of San Francisco was re-elected president by acclamation. He was accorded an ovation and presented with a laurel tribute and a diamond studded watch.

The three new vice-presidents are Langford R. Gedders, head of the police department of Montreal, Canada; Captain John O'Connor and Lieutenant John Martin, Chicago; secretary, Sergeant Wardham, San [illegible] Anderson, Phoenix, Ariz.

Late today reports from twelve divisional committees were submitted to the executive committee for further action.

To night the delegates and their wives will attend a ball at the Civic Auditorium, in addition to other social functions.

Alimony Ordered in De Bernardi Contest

Mrs. Elinor de Bernardi today was granted $75 a month alimony on motion of Attorney Edward J. Silver by Judge E. J. Brown from Clarence R. de Bernardi, son of the late D. de Bernardi, wealthy olive oil king of San Francisco. It was stipulated that the order restraining De Bernardi from disposing of his $100,000 interest in the $500,000 firm of his father be continued in effect until further court order.

Mrs. de Bernardi has sued for divorce, charging that her husband constantly scolded and found fault with her and once struck her. They were married May 22, 1913. The child is Vera, 5.

Husband Ordered to Pay Alimony

Allegations that his wife refused to summon medical aid for her children or himself, were made today by Laurence R. Chilcote, production engineer, before Judge Koford in an effort to be given custody of two young children, Laurence Jr., aged 2, and William, aged one year. The Chilcotes live on Ashby avenue, Berkeley.

Stating that sufficient evidence had not been shown to take the children away from the mother, Judge Koford ordered Chilcote to pay his wife $120 a month alimony.

Father McKinnon, Livermore Pastor, Buried Tomorrow

Rev. D. J. McKinnon.

LIVERMORE, Aug. 27.—Funeral services will be held here at 10:30 tomorrow morning for the late Father Donald J. McKinnon, pastor for the last five years of St. Michael's church of this place, who died at Providence hospital, Oakland, Tuesday night. The office for the dead will be chanted at St. Michael's church at 8 o'clock tonight.

He had been under treatment for the past seven months continuously, except that he came home about two weeks ago, but found it necessary to return a week later.

Father McKinnon was a native of Prince Edward Island, Canada, and 45 years of age. He came to the United States at the age of 14 years and attended Santa Clara College, and also St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, and later took a two years' post-graduate course at the Catholic University in Washington, D. C.

He was ordained in September, 1917, at St. Mary's church, Prince Edward Island, and his first appointment was assistant to Rev. P. R. Lynch at St. James church, San Francisco.

Later he served for a short time at Hayward and also at Mission San Jose. In 1915 he came to Livermore from Morgan Hill. Here he secured the construction of the new $75,000 St. Michael's church two years ago, a beautiful concrete edifice, which was the completion of his life work.

Father McKinnon is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McKinnon of Prince Edward Island; two sisters, Sister Angela of Spokane, Wash., and Sister Xavier of Providence Hospital, and two brothers, W. J. McKinnon of Prince Edward Island, and W. R. McKinnon of Livermore.

Get Into Politics, Wilbur Tells U. C.

BERKELEY, Aug. 27.—College men, and women were told to don coats of armor and get into the political game of the United States in order to rehabilitate American ideals, by President Ray Lymon Wilbur, of Stanford University, speaking this morning in Harmon Gymnasium at a students' assembly.

"The United States is in a political slump," said Dr. Wilbur. "It is up to university men and women to get it out, even if they have to wear a coat of armor instead of bathing suits to enter the pool of politics. It is up to college men and women to re-establish American ideals. Get in all of you and make politics better and sounder.

"The young manhood of America were willing to give their lives in the war, and they should be willing to give their services to politics to bring about a new American ideal."

The United States is ready to take the leadership of the world, Dr. Wilbur said, and this was emphasized by America's supremacy in the Olympic games.

Mrs. Charlotte Kellogg, wife of Dr. Vernon Kellogg of Stanford University, told the students of America's part in alleviating suffering in Belgium and other stricken countries.

Pleads With Wife As He Wins His Decree

After Judge E. J. Brown had stated he would give Allister S. Mitchell, superintendent of the California Cotton Mills, a divorce from Mrs. Donalda Mary Mitchell, the husband indicated he still loved his wife. He walked to her side and apparently pleaded with her to return to him, while Mrs. Mitchell persistently shook her head.

Mitchell said his wife had a vicious temper, threw things at him, called him a liar and crazy and was extremely jealous. He also said she once asked him to let her leave the children with him while she went to China as a missionary to the heathen.

Mitchell said he had deeded to his wife their $4000 home at 2625 Wakefield avenue, furniture and a piano worth $2500 and allowed her to withdraw all the money they had on joint deposit in the bank.

Mitchell was given a decree. By consent the three children were placed in the custody of a friend, Mrs. Marie Cunha.

Sperback Appointed Assistant Engineer

ALAMEDA, Aug. 27.—George Sperback, who for six months has served as an assistant in the city street department, was today appointed assistant city engineer. Sperback succeeds Burnette Hamilton, who resigned recently to enter the automobile business.

The appointment was made by Major C. E. Hickok, city engineer. Sperback is a graduate of the University of California, and served a year in the office of the city engineer of Contra Costa county. During the war he was a lieutenant in the engineer corps.

Steamship Company Given Tax Rebate

Transfer of money from the city's general fund to the Parr-McCormick Steamship line improvement fund was voted by the city council this morning. The transfer will provide $732 for the improvement fund of the Parr Terminal company as tax reimbursement for the year 1919-20 and $714.20 for the present year.

Another claim for dockage, tolls, rent and taxes on the same lease was filed with the council today by the Parr company, covering the company's bill to August 31, and amounting to $1,586.10.

WOMAN SEEKS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Mary Ferreira has sued Tony Ferreira for divorce, charging that while he falsely accused her of associating with other men, he spent his evenings in the company of other women. Mrs. Ferreira asks for the custody of five children and $95 a month.

DOCTOR'S TRIAL NEARS END.

Testimony in the case of Dr. James E. Thompson, charged with performing an illegal operation upon Mrs. Beatrice Snyder, was concluded before Judge L. S. Church today and the case continued until Monday morning for argument.

MOTOR DRIVERS ARRESTED.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 27.—Two Oakland motor drivers, speeding their respective machines in Alameda yesterday, were arrested by Traffic Officer James Ross. Santie Pierson, 647 Seventh street, Oakland, and Walter Mandler, 664 Thirty-first street, were the accused.

Cheaper Milk Next Year, Alameda Housewives Hear

Milk will be sold in the Eastbay cities in the spring at lower prices, the Alameda Housewives' League announced today, following the receipt of a communication to that effect from the Milk Producers of Central California.

The Alameda league gave no intimation as to how much milk would go down in price. At the conclusion of the meeting milk was sold at 14 cents a quart and bread at 14 cents a loaf to more than 100 members.

Declarations by the Berkeley branch of the California Federation of Housewives' Leagues, that the Associated Milk Producers is a trust controlling 90 per cent of the milk supply of the state, and counter statements by Winfield Scott of the dairymen, to the effect that only 35 per cent of the milk is held by the Associated, which is a non-profit co-operative society, were others features of the day's situation.

The Berkeley women assert that the Associated fixes prices and really makes a profit of about six cents a gallon.

The statement says in part:

"The association is a trust acting as the middleman. The figures, which we quote, are the result of investigations before the advance of 4 cents a gallon to distributors Aug. 1, 1920. The association paid dairymen a maximum of 25 cents and a minimum of 20 cents a gallon for their milk. The association claims its legitimate expenses are approximately 1½ cents a gallon. The average freight charge is 2 cents. This makes the cost 28½ cents a gallon. The distributors paid the association 35 cents. The difference, 6½ cents, is not accounted for.

FEE FOR MEMBERSHIP.

"When the farmer joins the association he pays $5 for each cow as membership fee. When he sells out, the buyer pays the membership fee again. The former member after two years is paid back the fee without interest. This gives the association a working capital of approximately $2,000,000. We do not attack the individual farmer. In some instances he does not receive enough for his milk. If he does not, it is entirely the fault of the pernicious methods of the Milk Producers' association."

The association is trying to eliminate middlemen and speculators and sell directly from producer to consumer and that the price of milk is fixed by commission merchants on the Dairy Exchange at the present time, Scott said at his headquarters in San Francisco today, in answer to the charges.

PRICE THIS WINTER.

"The price of milk this winter will depend on the price of feed and labor. In 1914, milk was 10 cents a quart. Today it is 17 cents, an increase of 70 per cent. Show me any article of food and clothing that has not increased more than that."

Scott explained that the association was the co-operative answer of the producers to exploitation in the past.

STREETS DARKEN AS POWER SAVING

Steps to reduce the use of electricity in municipal lighting circuits were taken by the council today in compliance with the State order. Commissioner Morse's recommendation that the Pacific Gas & Electric Company reduce street lighting during the water shortage was carried, with a proviso for the commensurate reduction of the city's bills.

During the moonlight, between the regular lighting time and 10 p. m., excepting in foggy or cloudy weather, the new schedule will eliminate series circuits, including overhead lamps and electroliers on Grove street between Forty-seventh street and Berkeley and on Hopkins street.

"Midnight" electroliers on Grove between Forty-seventh street and the Berkeley line, College avenue and on Telegraph between Twenty-third and Fifty-sixth will also be discontinued. All-night circuits will be turned on at midnight.

'HIGHTS' WATER TANGLE SWITCHED

An angle of the recent controversy between occupants of "The Heights," former home of Joaquin Miller, members of the city recreation department and hikers of the Contra Costa Hills Club over the rights of campers and trampers on the confines of "The Heights," was switched to the city council today with the result that the city attorney's office has the task of straightening out the water rights of the property.

Juanita Miller, daughter of the late poet, who occupies a portion of the hilltop that was recently sold to the city as a municipal park, appeared before the council with a complaint that she is constantly compelled to furnish water to hikers and visitors in the vicinity. She requested the installation by the city of a pipe line that will carry sufficient water to satisfy the thirsty without the aid of her own supply.

BEAR HUNTED IN ST. LOUIS CITY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 27.—The first bear hunt in St. Louis in ninety years—oldest inhabitants vouch for the time—was staged today when two huge grizzlies were loosed from their cage in Forest Park to roam in the fashionable West Side residential section by some practical joker. Mounted policemen with riot guns, attendants and hundreds of excited citizens joined in the hunt. Both bears were recaptured.

FAMINE STALKS IN WAKE OF RED WARSAW FLIGHT

By CARL D. GROAT,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Aug 27—Famine and desolation are following in the wake of the panic-stricken flight of the Bolshevik troops, who are crossing the frontier into East Prussia by thousands.

Many of the men are accompanied by their wives and children whom, they said, they were forced to bring with them on the invasion of Poland, or they would have starved to death.

Indescribable scenes are being enacted along the border, according to despatches from press correspondents.

German officials established soup kitchens to care for the starving, emaciated Russians. Men, women and children, screaming and fighting, scrambled over each other in the rush for those rations "like pigs fighting at a feed trough," one correspondent said.

Some of the refugees, not realizing they could enter East Prussia without paying toll, offered hundreds of rubles and their personal trinkets to the frontier guards for their passage

Hundreds of the Reds declare they never want to return to Russia, saying it is impossible to make a living there The wildest rumors are in circulation among the prisoners. Word is passed from mouth to mouth that a revolution has broken out in Moscow and that Lenine and Trotsky have been slain

FEED NERVES PLENTY OF PHOSPHATE IN SUMMER

Keen Minded Men, Energetic and Successful Rely on It Asserts Prominent N. Y. Physician.

Bitro-Phosphate a Godsend

[illegible] ful easily upset and often fatigued need plenty of organic phosphate and the sooner they heed this advice the better their health will be.

In every one of the millions of cells that make up your body, phosphorus is a most important part.

Your nervous system, your brain your blood and even your bones must have a sufficient supply of phosphorus or weariness nervousness and a general run-down condition, as well as lack of normal mental power is sure to result.

Big men of affairs—Mighty men who control industries because of sheer will power and nervous force, know this, or, if they don't are clever enough to have a physician who does

Physicians more and more are realizing that Bitro-Phosphate, as dispensed at drug stores, is a necessity to over forty per cent of men and women because present day foods do not contain enough phosphate to give the body and especially the nervous system the supply it needs

Speaking on this very subject, Dr Frederick S Kolle, Editor-in-Chief of Physicians' 'Who's Who,' and a nationally known author of medical text books in a most emphatic statement said

"If I had my way Bitro-Phosphate should be prescribed by every doctor and used in every hospital"

Later Dr Kolle said "When the nerve tissue begins to lose its vitality woman begins to lose her youth and vivaciousness. Her lively, pleasant disposition fades away—she becomes irritable, uncompanionable moody and despondent It would indeed be a godsend if more men and women were aware of the efficacy of Bitro-Phosphate"

Hot weather is dreaded by men and women who are weak, thin nervous timid and lacking in vigorous development because it saps their vitality almost to the breaking point

To all such people Bitro-Phosphate is recommended because it is the one organic phosphate which when absorbed by the system will supply the element necessary for a vigorous healthy body free from any suggestion of weakness or disordered nerves

Your druggist has Bitro-Phosphate in the original package with complete instructions for best results—Advertisement.

An O. HENRY Story a Day

Humor Pathos Romance

Dougherty's Eye Opener.

Big Jim Dougherty was a sport. He belonged to that race of men In Manhattan it is a distinct race. They are the Caribs of the North—strong, artful, self-sufficient, clannish honorable within the laws of their race, holding in lenient contempt neighboring tribes who bow to the measure of Society's [illegible] I refer, of course, to the titled nobility of sportdom There is a class which bears as a qualifying adjective the substantive belonging to a wind instrument made of a cheap and base metal But the tin mines of Cornwall never produced the material for manufacturing descriptive nomenclature for "Big Jim" Dougherty

The habitat of the sport is the lobby or the outside corner of certain hotels and combination restaurants and cafes They are mostly men of different sizes, running from small to large, but they are unanimous in the possession of a recently shaven, blue-black cheek and chin and dark overcoats (in season) with black velvet collars.

Of the domestic life of the sport little is known It has been said that Cupid and Hymen sometimes take a hand in the game and copper the queen of hearts to lose Daring theorists have averred—not content with simply saying—that a sport often contracts a spouse, and even incurs descendants Sometimes he sits in the game of politics, and then at chowder picnics there is a revelation of a Mrs. Sport and little Sports in glazed hats with tin pails

But mostly the sport is Oriental He believes his women-folk should not be too patent Somewhere behind grilles or flower-ornamented fire escapes they await him. There, no doubt, they tread on rugs from Teheran and are diverted by the bulbul and play upon the dulcimer and feed upon sweetmeats But away from his home the sport is an integer. He does not, as men of other races in Manhattan do, become the convoy in his unoccupied hours of fluttering laces and high heels that tick off delectably the happy seconds of the evening parade He herds with his own race at corners, and delivers a commentary in his Carib lingo upon the passing show

'Big Jim' Dougherty had a wife, but he did not wear a button portrait of her upon his lapel He had a home in one of those brownstone iron-railed streets on the west side that look like a recently excavated bowling alley of Pompeii

To this home of his Mr Dougherty repaired each night when the hour was so late as to promise no further diversion in the arch domains of sport By that time the occupant of the monogamistic harem would be in dreamland the bulbul silenced and the hour propitious for slumber

The guests were numerous well-dressed and gay

'Big Jim' always arose at twelve, meridian for breakfast, and soon afterward he would return to the rendezvous of his crowd'

He was always vaguely conscious that there was a Mrs Dougherty He would have received without denial the charge that the quiet, neat comfortable little woman across the table at home was his wife In fact, he remembered pretty well that they had been married for nearly four years She would often tell him about the cute tricks of Spot, the canary and the light-haired lady that lived in the window of the flat across the street

'Big Jim' Dougherty even listened to this conversation of hers sometimes He knew that she would have a nice dinner ready for him every evening at seven when he came for it She sometimes went to matinees and she had a talking machine with six dozen records Once when her Uncle Ames blew in on a wind from up-state, she went with him to the [illegible] were diversions enough for a woman

One afternoon Mr Dougherty finished his breakfast, put on his hat and got away fairly for the door When his hand was on the knob he heard his wife's voice.

"Jim" she said, firmly, I wish you would take me out to dinner this evening It has been three years since you have been outside the door with me'

'Big Jim' was astounded She had never asked anything like this before It had the flavor of a totally new proposition But he was a game sport

"All right," he said 'You be ready when I come at seven None of this 'wait two minutes till I primp an hour or two' kind of business, now Dele"

"I'll be ready," said his wife, calmly

At seven she descended the stone steps in the Pompeian bowling alley at the side of 'Big Jim' Dougherty She wore a dinner gown made of a stuff that the spiders must have woven and of a color that a twilight sky must have contributed A light coat with many admirably unnecessary capes and adorably inutile ribbons floated downward from her shoulders Fine feathers do make fine birds, and the only reproach in the saying is for the man who refuses to give up his earnings to the ostrich-tip industry.

'Big Jim' Dougherty was troubled There was a being at his side whom he did not know. He thought of the sober-hued plumage that this bird of paradise was accustomed to wear in her cage, and this winged revelation puzzled him In some way she reminded him of the Delia Cullen that he had married four years before Shyly and rather awkwardly he stalked at her right hand

"After dinner I'll take you back home, Dele" said Mr Dougherty, "and then I'll drop back up to Seltzer's with the boys You can have swell chuck tonight if you want it I made a winning on Anaconda yesterday, so you can go as far as you like"

Mr. Dougherty had intended to make the outing with his unwonted wife an inconspicuous one Uxoriousness was a weakness that the [illegible] did not countenance [illegible] his friends of the track, the billiard cloth or the square circle had wives they had never complained of the fact in public There were a number of table d'hote places on the cross streets near the broad and shining way; and to one of these he had proposed to escort her, so that the bushel might not be removed from the light of his domesticity.

But while on the way Mr Dougherty altered those intentions He had been casting stealthy glances at his attractive companion and he was seized with the conviction that she was no selling plater He resolved to parade with his wife past Seltzer's cafe, where at this time a number of his tribe would be gathered to view the daily evening procession Yes, and he would take her to dine at Hoogley's the swellest slow-lunch warehouse on the line, he said to himself

The congregation of smooth-faced tribal gentlemen were on watch at Seltzer's As Mr Dougherty and his reorganized Delia passed they stared, momentarily petrified, and then removed their hats—a performance as unusual to them as was the astonishing innovation presented to their gaze by 'Big Jim' On the latter gentleman's impassive face there appeared a slight flicker of triumph—a faint flicker, no more to be observed than the expression called there by the draft of little casino to a four card spade flush.

Hoogley's was animated Electric lights shone—as, indeed, they were expected to do And the napery, the glassware and the flowers also meritoriously performed the spectacular duties required of them The guests were numerous, well-dressed and gay

A waiter—not necessarily obsequious—conducted "Big Jim" Dougherty and his wife to a table.

'Play that menu straight across for what you like, Dele," said "Big Jim" It's you for a trough of the gilded oats tonight It strikes me that maybe we've been sticking too fast to home fodder

Big Jim's wife gave her order He looked at her with respect She had mentioned truffles and he had not known that she knew what truffles were From the wine list she designated an appropriate and desirable brand He looked at her with some admiration

She was beaming with the innocent excitement that woman derives from the exercise of her gregariousness She was talking to him about a hundred things with animation and delight And as the meal progressed her cheeks, colorless from a life indoors, took on a delicate flush 'Big Jim" looked around the room and saw that none of the women there had her charm And then he thought of the three years she had suffered immurement, uncomplaining, and a flush of shame warmed him for he carried fair play as an item in his creed.

But when the Honorable Patrick Corrigan leader in Dougherty's district and a friend of his saw them and came over to the table, matters got to the three quarter stretch The Honorable Patrick was a gallant man, both in deeds and words As for the Blarney stone, his previous actions toward it must have been pronounced Heavy damages for breach of promise could surely have been obtained had the Blarney stone seen [illegible] Patrick

Jimmy old man!' he called he clapped Dougherty on the back he shone like a midday sun upon Delia

'Honorable Mr Corrigan — Mrs Dougherty,' said 'Big Jim'

The Honorable Patrick became a fountain of entertainment and admiration The waiter had to fetch a third chair for him he made another at the table and the wine glasses were refilled

You selfish old rascal' he exclaimed shaking an arch finger at 'Big Jim' to have kept Mrs Dougherty a secret from us

And then "Big Jim' Dougherty who was no talker sat dumb and saw the wife who had dined every evening for three years at home blossom like a fairy flower Quick, witty, charming, full of light and ready talk she received the experienced attack of the Honorable Patrick on the field of repartee and surprised vanquished delighted him She unfolded her long-closed petals and around her the room became a garden They tried to include 'Big Jim' in the conversation, but he was without a vocabulary

And then a stray bunch of politicians and good fellows who lived for sport came into the room They saw 'Big Jim' and the leader, and over they came and were made acquainted with Mrs Dougherty. And in a few minutes she was holding a salon Half a dozen men surrounded her courtiers all and six found her capable of charming 'Big Jim' sat, grim and kept saying to himself 'Three years three years!'

The dinner came to an end The Honorable Patrick reached for Mrs Dougherty's cloak but that was a matter of action instead of words and Dougherty's big hand got it first by two seconds

rick smote Dougherty mightly between the shoulders

'Jimmy, me boy' he declared, in a giant whisper, the madam is a jewel of the first water You're a lucky dog"

"Big Jim" walked homeward with his wife She seemed quite as pleased with the lights and show windows in the streets as with the admiration of the men in Hoogley's [illegible] passed Seltzer's they heard the sound of many voices in the cafe. The boys would be starting the drinks around now and discussing past performances

At the door of their home Delia paused The pleasure of the outing radiated softly from her countenance. She could not hope for Jim of evenings, but the glory of this one would lighten her lonely hours for a long time

Thank you for taking me out, Jim," she said, gratefully "You'll be going back up to Seltzer's now, of course"

To —— with Seltzer's" said 'Big Jim,' emphatically. 'And d—— Pat Corrigan! Does he think I haven't got any eyes?'

And the door closed behind both of them

WALNUT MEN SEE IMPORT MENACE

SAN JOSE, Aug. 27.—Unless a satisfactory tariff is imposed on imported walnuts the walnut growing industry of the Pacific Coast may be irreparably hurt, declares Carlyle Thorpe, general manager of the California Walnut Growers' Association, today as he left for the East to make a trade survey for the benefit of his organization At the present, it is stated, inferior walnuts are being imported from Europe and Manchuria. More than 50,000,000 pounds of European walnuts have been laid down in the Eastern markets during the past nine months

"Owing to the terrific break in foreign exchange, Europeans are shoving practically all their walnuts into our markets, where the dollar reigns supreme," Thorpe says. "The advantage they gain when the returns are changed into their money affords them a good profit, despite the fact that they are offering their walnuts here at less than the actual cost of producing California walnuts

WHEN A REVOLT FAILED

When a few weeks ago the cable despatches told of a war in China, with the military forces of the Anhwei party marching to the attack of Peking rendered questionable the safety of the foreigners in the Chinese capital, they signified to the average American reader nothing more than a Chinese factional fight. On this side the Pacific motives were obscure and aims difficult to understand.

But the results of the short-lived conflict are becoming sharply apparent. In the interest of correct appreciation, it is necessary to consider briefly the fate of a Chinese opportunist with a counterpart in every country. Marshal Tuan Chi-jui was for many years a trusted Chinese statesman. He opposed the late President Yuan Shih-kai when the latter aspired to become emperor. A year later he stood against the scheme of General Chang Hsun to restore the Manchu dynasty, and thus preserved the republic. This service pleased the people and he became a popular figure.

But during the world war, either of his own disposition or through the intrigue of his subordinates, he became allied with the Japanese faction of the Chinese government. In time his connection with the Anfu Club, a political organization dominated by Japanese officialdom, became notorious and he lost many friends. A ring of corrupt officials seems to have surrounded him, [illegible] their looting of the government treasury of railroad and other revenues.

Finally Marshal Tuan picked a quarrel with the central government and, taking the law into his own hands, led an army against the commander of the troops in Chihli province. The result is history. Marshal Tuan was defeated. After the manner of Chinese magnanimity, he was permitted to go to Tientsin where, at official suggestion, he feigned an attempt at suicide. His followers are dispersed, some of them in government custody, others fugitives from justice.

The results of Marshal Tuan's defeat now are being thrown on the world's political screen. The pro-Japanese Anfu Club and the Japanese clique in the Peking government have been dislodged from power. Japan feels the loss of position keenly. She has been routed, but the proprieties warn against admission of the fact.

Already Japan has set in motion plans for regaining her position for intrigue in China and at the same time she is contemplating a direct attack on the Peking government. Government inspired Japanese papers are complaining that the attitude of the Chinese government is most unsatisfactory and that T[illegible] to solve the situation [illegible].

All this means that [illegible] of Tuan was defeated Japan was temporarily beaten at Peking. The Chinese general will sulk and sorrow in his home, conscious that the remaining years of his life must be lived in the shadow of a great disappointment and with the memory of a painful failure. But Japan, abandoning Marshal Tuan to his future uselessness, will not pause. She will seek others to serve her and soon another club of the nature of the Anfu will come into existence. And the noise of her moves at Peking frequently will reach the outside world.

RICHMOND'S FORWARD EFFORT.

From the manner in which Richmond has started to arouse interest in a harbor bond campaign it would appear that that city is to take a prominent part in bringing about the commercial destiny of San Francisco Bay.

Civic workers, club women, union labor leaders and the Chamber of Commerce are united in a plan for a house-to-house canvass. Store windows, delivery packages and automobiles are to carry slogans of the campaign and four-minute speakers are to interrupt the progress of the screened comedies and tragedies long enough to place the message before audiences in the motion picture houses.

Any improvement of the waterfront at Richmond is an improvement of this great Eastbay area and as such will be welcomed by all of those who have its interests at heart. The business that is to come to the bay with the opening of new fields of Oriental trade and with the establishment of branch factories in almost every line of industry will amount to more than may be handled in any one limited strip of bay frontage.

With the vast amount of work that is being done today in establishing manufactories, warehouses, and docks here and with the almost daily announcement of new ventures planned, Oakland is able to understand the impulse that would urge Richmond to making the most of what is a common opportunity and to extend to a sister city its best wishes in an undertaking which cannot help but benefit all of the cities touching upon the bay.

Exports for the first seven months of this calendar year amounted to $4,902,000,000, an increase of $276,000,000 over the similar period of last year. Imports for the first seven months of this year were valued at $3,482,000,000, an increase of $1,528,000,000. The excess of exports over imports for the above period shows a decline of $1,250,000,000. Thus, while the export trade of the country showed a slight increase, about five per cent, during the seven months ended July 31, imports recorded a gain of nearly fifty per cent. The balance of trade in favor of the United States was cut nearly in half, or by the significant figure of one and one-quarter billion dollars. If the rate of gain in imports continues throughout the year at the rate shown during the first seven months the favorable balance of trade will be cut to almost nothing, to a figure which would disappear altogether if our foreign trade should be carried almost exclusively in foreign ships, as was the case before the war, and tolls for the transportation of our commodities paid to foreign countries.

Tennessee anti-suffragists appear to have been outwitted in their effort to prevent certification by the governor to the Secretary of State of the legislature's ratification of the nineteenth amendment. While the State supreme court was considering the record in connection with the injunction proceedings brought in a lower court, the governor signed the ratification resolution and it is now enroute to Washington. If the antis are serious enough in their fight to delay effect to the suffrage amendment they may take another turn in the courts, but in the meantime the fact of ratification probably will be promulgated by the Secretary of State and then the pain of suspense will have passed.

FOREIGN TRADE FOR LAST FISCAL YEAR

By DR. FRANK M. [illegible]

WASHINGTON, [illegible] the beginning of [illegible] foreign trade expre[illegible] increased by [illegible] in the three years [illegible] was $2,[illegible] amount to [illegible] our exports [illegible] In the [illegible] valued at $[illegible] at $2,696,[illegible] Department of Commerce [illegible] imports at the [illegible] $5,238,000,000 [illegible] on the pre-war [illegible] nearly 200 per cent [illegible]

When expressed [illegible] only our increase [illegible] is likely to [illegible] know that the prices [illegible] ties increased very much during the war and by far the larger [illegible] our increase in foreign [illegible] has been due to the [illegible] unit. It is interesting [illegible] an average [illegible] in prices of exports [illegible] index of the Department [illegible] shows that wholesale [illegible] principal commodities [illegible] try have increased [illegible] cent over the prices [illegible] of export articles have [illegible] creased even more [illegible] If we take [illegible] post-war conditions it is [illegible] this figure of 160 per cent increase [illegible] a problem as to where this in[illegible] in prices and applying to the pre-port-export ratio will finally come to [illegible] export and import figures we left. [illegible] In other words [illegible]

Europe owes large sums of money to this country. She undoubtedly will try to pay the interest and principal in goods as far as possible. This will result in a tendency to decrease our exports and increase imports from this part of the world. Before the war we sent large amount of money to Europe for ship hire and as interest on investments. We now have our own merchant marine and Europe has disposed of a large part of her American securities. The recent [illegible] act will decrease foreign insurance premiums. There is every indication that so far as Europe is concerned the invisible balance of trade from this country will be [illegible] than before the war.

All of these factors will tend to diminish exports and to increase imports to this country from Europe. [illegible] If Europe can develop a [illegible] balance in South America, the Far East, or any other part of the world, this can be used to settle her accounts with the United States.

Taken all in all there is every indication that economic forces will require that our imports increase faster than our exports in the next few years. In other words, our import-export ratio must increase [illegible] to the pre-war level, and probably several points above this. The point at which this can be stabilized depends very largely upon our success in establishing and maintaining favorable trade relations with South America and the Far East.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

Occasionally a grown-up printer's devil is put in a quandary as to whether or not to run for the presidency and then run the country, or to stay at home and run the paper.—Long Beach Press.

"It'll be a bad year for spuds," seems to be the consensus of opinion among the dealers of Stockton. Increased freight rates and shortage of labor is causing distress to buyers and growers.—Stockton Independent.

There are yet ten districts in Butte County for which no teachers have been found, according to Mrs. Lawrence Kitrick, Deputy County Superintendent of Schools. A strenuous effort is being made to obtain teachers for these schools, before the terms open early in September. At the present time the minimum salary paid a teacher in Butte County is $110 for eight months.—Oroville Register.

The town of Redding is bragging about its "jackass brandy," but Dixon had a man who bought a bottle of ten-year-old horse liniment at a local drug store and that night was arrested and sent to Napa for kicking his bunk house down.—Dixon Tribune.

The bachelor has scored. He is being sought for positions in towns where there is a shortage of houses. Berkeley reports that its high school had secured an athletic head, a married man, but because he could not find a house to live in he threw up the job. A search is being made for a new teacher, preferably a single man who can modestly bestow himself in one corner of an attic, or in a folding bed on the sleeping porch or on top of the garage.—Stockton Record.

Arthur P. Forni has purchased for the Forni cellar north of town, an up-to-date grape crusher with a capacity of 150 tons a day, and a hydraulic wine press of the latest type. Mr. Forni expects to make 200,000 gallons of wine the coming vintage.—St. Helena Star.

Manufacturers, shippers and business men of Richmond are interested in the announcement that freight rates from Eastern cities to San Francisco bay for shipment to the Orient through this port will be on the same basis as through Eastern ports via the Panama canal. The announcement was made by Edward Chambers of Chicago, who arrived in San Francisco yesterday.—Richmond Independent.

A Detroit man was fined $15 and costs for taking, without paying for it, a paper from a pile for sale on a street corner. And yet some people would take a paper for years—or forever—without paying for it, if they could get away with it.—Woodland Mail.

Medicine phials believed to have been used by Shakespeare during his last illness have been unearthed by workmen engaged in reconstruction of the famous bard's garden at Stratford-on Avon. HOW TO BE HEALTHY

Why Danger Lies in Taking Drugs Not Ordered by Dr.

By CHARLES F. POWLISON
General Secretary of the National Child Welfare Association.

Digitalis, the fox glove plant, appears to hold an uncanny mystery to most persons. Merely to know the name of any drug, then to ask "is it good" for this or that complaint exhibits a woeful lack of the elementary knowledge that a drug is seldom given in the same dose, the same way, the same strength or for the same purpose to any two individuals.

Five drops of digitol may be the exact quantity to regulate the pulse of a dwarf, yet it may kill the giant in the circus.

A home person who tries to administer medicines is "monkeying with a buzz saw." The proper doses, method of administration and use of medicines has been the source of much study, trial, experiment and research, yet the dangerous and eternally ubiquitous "home doctor" still thinks it easy. That all you have to know is the name of the medicine and what sickness it is for. Beware of such dangerous nonsense! Administer medicine only according to the direction of your physician.

Calomel is no longer prescribed or used at all by some physicians, who say it is a dangerous purgative, that it has done more harm than good, and is apt to change into poisonous mercury salts.

Digitalis is an excellent drug at times in medically mathematical hands for certain heart conditions. It must be given to produce a sick stomach to be sure of its effects. Vomiting, however, which appears after a patient has received 130 drops or so of a well-made tincture in a period of two or three days is a sign that the patient has had enough of the drug and it should be stopped. Mental depression and physical weakness appear before this, which is, as Dr. H. E. B. Pardee says, similar to seasickness.

Persons differ when it comes to taking medicine. One patient with one kind of the fifty-seven types of heart disorder may need only one-tenth of the dose another patient requires with exactly the same kind of a heart.

Soda, vinegar, acids, teas, digitalis, castor oil, cascara, headache remedies and the rest of them all do tricks and stunts you may trifle with once too often.

It is evident that great medical skill is needed as a guide in giving even iron, quinine and strychnine, not to speak of a hundred other medicines. Therefore, it is not possible for you, be you ever so intelligent, to treat yourself or your loved ones, even with a medicine you think you know all about.

Cleveland—George Hayes, an employee of the Cleveland Paint Works, says that never more will he carry his pencil behind his ear.

Hayes was to call on his fiancee for an important event the other evening. He was working late to clear up his books before leaving the plant. Suddenly he smelled burning hair. At the same moment he felt a sizzling heat. He had placed his cigarette behind his ear, thinking it was his pencil. The whole west side of his luxuriant black locks were burned off.—Detroit News.

GIRL IS WAYLAID BY BANDIT PAIR, SOLDIER ACCUSED

One of two men who chose the hour of midnight to hold up and beat Miss Edith Archer, 635 Tyler street, is in the city jail, according to the police, who say that the arrest of the other is soon to follow. The man arrested is William A. Jones, a soldier stationed at Alcatraz island.

Miss Archer was on her way home from a party and was walking on Ninety-eighth avenue, between B and C streets, when two men sprang at her from behind a tree. They carried the screaming and struggling girl into a vacant lot and struck her several blows as they fought with her for her handbag.

Cries of the girl attracted the attention of a number of residents in the neighborhood, who rushed to the street and by this time the young men had secured the girl's purse, containing $25, and were running down Ninety-eighth avenue. M. V. Anderson, 9533 East Fourteenth street, pursued one of the men and overtook Jones, who was turned over to the police. Miss Archer later identified him as one of the men who had attacked her.

Toll of Death and Injury From Stunt Flying Is Told At Gathering of Aviators

BERKELEY, Aug. 27. — Condemnation of "stunt flying" at low altitudes and free expression of opinions that several recent fatal accidents were the result of recklessness the public should have forbidden instead of boosted, marked the meeting of the Allied Fliers' Club last night in Stiles' hall. Addresses were made by Major Reed Chambers, who followed Captain Rickenbacker as commander of the famous 94th Aero Squadron, and who ranks next to that ace in the number of German 'planes brought down in the war; and Captain E. M. Deckert, a French war pilot and technical instructor. The meeting was presided over by Harold Austin. Among other speakers was Albert Michelson of the Pacific Aero club.

"The flying game is not dangerous if it is intelligently followed," said Captain Deckert. The stunts of reckless pilots are killing the game. Instead of receiving public laudation as they receive here, in Europe they would receive jail sentences.

"A few days ago there was a fatal accident in San Francisco simply because the pilot refused to recognize the limitations of his machine. The airplane was designed for one, but two went up, with a load of newspapers weighing about 150 pounds. The motor had been working badly. He could not gain enough speed to turn well, and could not climb rapidly enough to clear high power wires. Consequently he fell and he and his passenger were killed."

Captain Deckert has been engaged in airplane flying and designing since 1912, and has spent more than 3000 hours in the air. From 1914 to 1917 he was a war pilot in the French army, and in 1917 was made officer chief pilot and head instructor of the flying high school at Pau. In 1918 he was appointed officer chief pilot of the French mission in Japan.

A general discussion of possible flying laws followed, and it is expected that a model municipal ordinance to be submitted to all cities of the Pacific coast, governing the use of airplanes above cities, will be drafted by the organizations of the bay district interested in aviation. This course was strongly advocated. Among the defenders of municipal ordinances was Albert Michelson of the Pacific Aero club, who urged that it would be a year before State action could be put into effect, and that city laws would be repealed by implication when the State laws went into effect.

LATE SOCIALS, 'OWL' SPOONING, UNDER U. C. BAN

BERKELEY, Aug. 27. — Dances and other social functions which went their merry way into the wee sma' hours of the morning have been banned by the Associated Women's Students at the university.

Here are the new rules:

All college women must be home from social functions by 2 a. m.

All university dances must end at 1 a. m. on Friday nights and at 12 o clock on Saturday, the latter rule being adopted to observe the Sabbath.

Following the lead of the girls, the senior men last night went on record in favor of terminating dances at 1 o'clock. Midnight walking on the campus was also placed under the ban of the upper classmen, a similar edict having been issued by the women.

"Creation of a better moral spirit on the campus" was given by the senior men as the motive for their action. They say recent college scandals have injured the good name of the university.

Both men and women students will be placed on their honor to observe the rules. The Associated Women Students council will give the rulings adopted by them a six months' trial.

"For the reputation of the university, as well as for the good of the students, this action has been made necessary," explains Miss Donna Watson, member of the women's council. "It is up to each woman student whether or not she upholds this ruling. There is no punishment if she does not; there is nothing to make her live up to it except her own honor."

Men students have been similarly placed on their honor to follow the lead of the girls and to see that they escort their partners home before 2 a. m.

Miss Margaret Morgan is chairman of a committee named by the girls to enforce the honor spirit pertaining to late dances and other college activities. Associated with her are the Misses Marion McNneany, Helen Chase, Mador Irwin, Miriam Trowbridge, Helen Bell, Helen Knight, Isabel Baylies and others.

Girl Tourist Adopts Triplets, Mother Willing

BILLY, BELINDA AND BERTHA, nine-months old triplets, who have given up a "movie" career to become the adopted son and daughters of MISS THORA SPALDING, and for a life in Broadmoor. They arrived in Oakland with their foster parent yesterday.

The high cost of rearing babies did not deter Miss Thora Spalding from adopting forsaken triplets in Los Angeles, on her way from Kansas to visit a sister in Oakland. Miss Spalding arrived yesterday with her three 9-months-old foster charges, Billy, Belinda and Bertha.

Three babes at once were too much for their father, who promptly upon their birth in Los Angeles, deserted the young mother of Billy, Belinda and Bertha. The girlwife tried for nine months to support them. Then overtures were made to a moving picture company. When word of the adoption by a corporation of the small boy and two girls was noised abroad, would-be parents rushed to the humble home intent upon claiming the children for themselves.

Out in Broadmoor where the new foster mother's sister, Mrs. C. W. Bray, resides, there is great excitement.

WIFE IS MOODY, HUSBAND SAYS, ASKING DIVORCE

Mrs. Lela B. Maiden's attitudes toward her husband varied. Sometimes she neglected her household duties; at others she was morose and distant toward him, according to the divorce complaint of C. Walter Maiden, proprietor of an upholstery shop. At most times she was ugly and abusive, he asserts.

On July 7 last, he declares, he went to his business as usual and left his wife at home, but when he returned in the evening she had departed. Their furniture and other belongings, he says, accompanied her. The next day, he avers, she appeared at his place of business and abused him in a loud and ugly voice in the presence of his patrons.

They were married in San Francisco, February 22, 1911, and have no children living. Their home was at 1969 Harrington avenue, Oakland.

Although George W. Young charged in a cross-complaint for divorce that he had discovered his wife, Mrs. Emma W. Young, was too intimate with a young man living in their community and that he rebuked her for indiscretions with this person, besides learning that after their separation she had committed further indiscretions with another man, Judge Everett J. Brown decided there was insufficient evidence to warrant giving him a decree and awarded it to Mrs. Young on her original complaint charging cruelty.

They were married in Oakland in May, 1906, and have two children, a boy of nine and a girl of 4. By consent Young takes the boy and the wife the girl. Mrs. Young waived alimony.

U. C. Students Are Improving In Physique

BERKELEY, Aug. 27.—Students entering the University this year are better physical specimens than in former years, says Dr. Robert Legge.

"In comparing with the physical examinations of five years ago, we find fewer physical defects. The reason for this marked difference is proper medical supervision in the secondary schools," says Dr. Legge.

Less eye refraction is noted and this defect has decreased 50 per cent in the last five years says Dr. Legge as a result of corrective measures.

CLERK IN BANK KILLS HIMSELF

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—The body of a young man, found yesterday in Buena Vista park, at Haight and Buena Vista avenue, with a bullet wound through the chest, today was identified as Walter J. Baker, 20 years old, a clerk in the Savings Union Bank and Trust Company in San Francisco. According to his employers young Baker had been in very poor health and recently was subject to fainting spells.

Baker was a son of W. H. Baker, member of the mercantile firm of Baker & Crosby, in Eureka.

CLEVELAND PLAYERS WILL NOT BAT AGAINST CARL MAYS

BENICIA CLUB AND MARE ISLAND ANNOUNCE LONG DISTANCE BOXING CONTESTS FOR LABOR DAY

BASEBALL SITUATION SERIOUS

MAYS AGAIN THE STORM CENTER

By H. C. HAMILTON,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—Baseball stands today facing an earthquake that may make shakes it has received in the past, seem like the veriest quiver. One American League baseball club—the Cleveland Indians—has signed a round robin resolution in which every player agrees to refuse to play ball [illegible] Carl Mays, the unfortunate pitcher who pitched the ball that killed Ray Chapman in New York last week. Other clubs have been asked to sign it and in baseball circles it is believed others will. If the trouble comes to a showdown—and it seems it will—grave results are expected.

The Yankees, exercising their rights under the rules of organized ball will claim each game their opponents refuse to play by forfeit. There will be nothing for the umpire to do but forfeit them the contest, since Mays is a regularly signed member of the Yankees and in good standing with organized baseball.

Next the league will extract from each club the players who perpetrate this, a fine.

Every ball player involved in such action automatically will violate his contract, and be open to action. His contract may become [illegible] immediately and he may lose his standing in baseball.

Mays cannot be injured by such action. He has signed a contract that makes certain his salary whether or not he plays baseball.

INDIANS ARE SERIOUS

There is no doubt that the Indians mean exactly what they say in their resolution. They will not play against Mays. However, the matter may end there unless other clubs also refuse to face the blonde underhand pitcher, for it is doubtful if Miller Huggins, Yankee manager, would ask Mays to pitch again against Cleveland and it is doubtful if he would care to.

It is not likely that the White Sox will join any campaign to remove Mays from the big league. They are leading the league and realize fully any forfeited game would mean less of a chance to win another pennant. They have, however, received telegrams from some mysterious source asking them to act.

Owners of the New York club are hoping that Ban Johnson, president of the league, will assert his authority and put a stop to the round robin. He has shown them great animosity in the past and may refuse to take action.

No formal statement has been issued regarding the case. Colonel T. L. Huston promised that something would develop today if Mays pitches.

It is believed Huggins will start him this afternoon against the White Sox.

CHARLES GRAHAM HAS GOOD ALIBI FOR CLUB NOT BEING AT THE TOP

Graham's Move in Releasing Smith and Seaton Weakened His Club; Fans Have Not Forgot

By EDDIE MURPHY

Unless Charley Graham, manager of the Seals, turns out a one, two or three ball club next year his hope of being at the helm of the transbay club when the next season rolls around is very slim. At least that is the way the boys on the other side of the bay are looking at things these days. They are getting after the Seals' manager because his club is not higher in the race than it is today. They say that Charley must deliver a winner next season or the fans will not support the games on the other side of the bay. San Francisco fans are supporting the team as well today as they did the last season they copped the pennant. Maybe the boys forget that Graham considerably weakened his club by making the first move this season for the good of baseball.

The Seals were sailing along at a winning clip when Indian Smith and Tom Seaton, two of the Seals' best bets on the pitching staff were released. With the old fighting spirit the Seals managed to win for a week or so without the aid of those two pitchers, but time told that the remainder of the staff wouldn't stand the gaff.

Seals Are Not So Far From League Leaders.

Considering all things, the Seals are making a fair enough [illegible] the race. Today they are in fourth place and seven and a half games behind the leaders with more than seven weeks of the [illegible]. The Seals finished sixth last season but were up fighting [illegible] until the last couple of [illegible] of the season. This year they [illegible] the lead as long as they had Seaton and Smith. They did regain it a short while ago but failed to hold it very long. [illegible] chances of Graham's [illegible] one, two or three club [illegible] from faded and it doesn't seem fair to the Seal leader to [illegible] on the carpet after his move in [illegible] Seaton and Smith.

They got after Phil Koerner [illegible] the club and you'll [illegible] now who will admit that [illegible] from the Seals [illegible] felt. Harry Wolter [illegible] Koerner's shoes [illegible] Bob Has[illegible] [illegible] around [illegible] has failed to show [illegible] improvement over [illegible] but four hits in [illegible] games and that is far [illegible] Koerner was doing [illegible]

Another good excuse [illegible] offer for his club [illegible] in the race is that [illegible] captain of the club [illegible] for the last six weeks with a sore [illegible] Roy was [illegible] hitting the ball harder than he [illegible] did for the Seals when he hurt his throwing arm on the local lot one [illegible]. There is a big difference in the [illegible] lineup.

BENICIA, Aug. 27.—Johnny Sudenberg and Leo Matlock, middleweights, will meet here in a ten-round bout on the evening of Labor Day. The match was closed today by George Wilson and the special events and preliminaries [illegible] will be staged in a big concrete building at the Arsenal and there will be seats for four thousand spectators. Bob Shand of The Oakland TRIBUNE has been appointed referee.

Hippo Burns, the Mare Island matchmaker, has lined up a nifty bunch of battles for Labor Day afternoon. There will be two six-round main events and four bouts over the four-round route.

Joe Ketchel of Alameda, and Sailor Johnny Webber will hook up in the main event and Kid Schuster of the Training Camp will meet Mickey O'Donnell of Martinez in the other main bout. The other bouts are:

Scotty Diest vs. Chick Roach.
Jack Winn vs. Al Green.
Young Rivers vs. Jimmy Rooney.
Manuel Azevedo vs. Barney McDonough.

The Allied promoters of San Francisco offer Dave Shade and Frankie Farren as the main event tonight. Shade defeated Battling Hurley in the main bout of the Benicia show last week and is in good shape.

Gene Cline, the Fresno lightweight, is in town and looking for matches. Gene is a good kid and bars none of them.

Jack Dempsey and Billy Miske are still training and the press agents are still telling about the wonderful hitting power of the big fellows. That's the news from Benton Harbor.

With a show at Mare Island Labor Day afternoon and another at Benicia in the evening, the fans will have a whole day of fighting. The promoters of the shows are helping each other out.

Frank Barrieau and Jack Reeves will furnish one of the main events of the local show next week and Battling Ortega may also be a starter. Tommy Simpson, Chief Frank Lynch, Elliott Whitehead and Louie Bernstein went out deer hunting yesterday, hence the scarcity of fight dope.

Better look out, you little four-rounders, for the Tiger is in town. He is Tiger Lammerson, a lightweight who has been boxing down the valley and he once trained with Battling Nelson and all that sort of thing. He's looking for trouble, is the Tiger.

Many Clubs to Seek Berths in Class B League

By MAURY PESSANO

Next Monday evening at 8 o'clock Fred J. Krumb, president of the Oakland TRIBUNE Midwinter League, will call a meeting for the forming of the Class B division of the league. All managers who wish to enter the "Junior" circuit should be present. Last year the Class B boys furnished the fans with a lot of fast baseball and are expected to put up even a better article this year. There will probably be more clubs trying for berths in the B league than last year, as several of the clubs that were turned down at the Class A meeting held last Monday will seek admission. The California Cotton Mills, who were members of the B league last year, have earned them [illegible] a position in the A league by their playing all summer. They will probably be the only old club of last year not at the meeting. The Twenty-third Avenue Merchants, Elmhurst Merchants, Melrose Allendale and the Orpheum Cigars, Red Men and the [illegible] Autos will be entitled to berths in the B league.

Chick Johnson, who led the Orpheums last year, will ask permission to change the name of his club, while Manuel Vierra of the Twenty-third Avenue Merchants will ask the same. All managers should be present not later than 8:15. Entrance to the TRIBUNE building will be gained on Franklin street.

Sunday afternoon when the Halton Duliers take the field against the Maxwell Hardware club, Manuel [illegible] will not [illegible] [illegible] will arrive home [illegible] During the absence of [illegible] Kues, who knows the [illegible] the [illegible] Shuts on the hill against the Hardware boys. [illegible] Pasquini, right fielder for the [illegible] Elks, did a lot of good [illegible] for his club with the willow [illegible] three smashing blows off the [illegible] of Perdering. He worked against the Elks. Parker did the [illegible] for the Elks against the [illegible] Candy Boys, the same club [illegible] the Great Western Power club last Sunday. Parker allowed [illegible] four hits and sent [illegible] of the Candy Boys to the bench on strikes. [illegible] was not the only member of the Elks club that hit well. [illegible] Lawson and El Spread each sent out two hits. One of Spread's went for the circuit clout.

The Oakland Rotary club "blue" team, composed of Frank Reed, William Warren, Major McCaughey and Grover Ballard, finished in first place in the Rotarian league with a record of eighteen games won and nine lost. Harry Kelton's "whites" finished second with thirteen games won and twelve lost. The members of the team were August Gerhardt, Jack Block, Albert Carter and Harry Kelton. Third place honors went to Norman De Vaux's "Reds," with eleven games won and sixteen lost. Albany Pearce, "Archie" Thomas and George Cardinet were the other members of the team. Ralph Whitney's "Orange" team are the cellar champs. Carsten Schmidt, Jay Baker and George Randolph assisted Whitney in holding down the cellar position.

Grover Ballard won the high individual score price in Class A, Bill Brown was champion of Class B and Major McCaughey Class C title holder. The second Rotary club bowling tournament will begin play at the Herold alleys on Friday, Sept. 3, with a membership of four teams.

"Tony" Dutro has entered a team in Class C of the San Francisco, and Suburban league and will bowl from the Herold alleys.

SEATTLE WINS SIX STRAIGHT

SHORT TIME REMAINS BEFORE ENTRIES CLOSE

MARATHON ENTRIES WILL CLOSE IN EIGHT MORE DAYS; BETTER ENTER NOW

Italian Clubs Preparing to Send in Big Entry List; Olympics Will Also Be Strong.

By DOUG. MONTELL.

Eight days are all that remain before the entry list closes for the Eighth Annual TRIBUNE Merritt Marathon. This marks the final lap of registration, in which the big surprises are due to be sprung. In fact there are to date but a few scattering entries received from members of clubs, showing that in practically every case the organizations are loath to announce the personnel of their teams until the last moment. This is not a new condition, the same prevails nearly every year, watchful waiting being the policy that governs the announcement of the strength of the rival athletic organizations.

There are three main groups in which the interest at present centers. The Olympic Club of San Francisco, the Virtus Club, the Union Sportiva Italiana and the Sporting Union Italia are the four main organizations of San Francisco from whom as yet, nary a peep has been heard. That all are preparing to send in a strong last-minute entry list is made clear by the fact that the Olympic Club asked for twenty blanks and each of the Italian organizations is prepared to send in ten at a minimum. With thirty representing the Italian organizations and twenty wearers of the Winged 'O' entered in the race at the last moment, it will be a merry time figuring out just where the honors will light.

CHURCHILL IS ABSENT

Last year the honors went to the Olympic Club when W J Churchill won, Charlie Hunter came home second, J H Fuller took third and Maurice Roach, then running unattached but now wearing the Winged 'O' finished fourth. Of this aggregation of running stars Charlie Hunter and Churchill are at present not available to compete and Fuller is the only one of the leaders of last year who has filed a definite entry. Fuller didn't wait to enter with the main body of Olympians, but cast his entry into the ring the second one.

There has been much conjecturing as to whether Maurice Roach will run for the Olympic Club or not. Not having been able to find out anything definite about the twenty men whom the Olympic Club will have to represent it we can but surmise that Roach will run, if he is entered at the last minute. Nothing certain can be said however of any of the known athletes until they definitely register.

THE OLYMPIC ENTRIES

It is furthermore talked of that O'Neil, Ahern, Farmer, Fuller, Forward, Roach and Carroll will constitute the main strength of the Olympic club. This body of distance runners is the most formidable assembled under the Winged "O" in a long time and should these men be entered by Fred Farmer, who is handling the affairs of the Marathon in the Olympic Club all other organizations want to watch their laurels carefully.

In the second classification comes the extreme rivalry between the various Y M C A's of the bay region. To date the Oakland and Berkeley Y's have sent in lone entries representing them and the San Francisco 'Y' has remained silent. All these organizations are known to be planning on a large entry list to represent them, as has been the case in previous years. Just where the honors for the first "Y" runner to finish will rest is a much mooted question. Bud Kearns of Oakland having had his men in training for three weeks and has the advantage of location, while C E Pease of Berkeley has been working quietly with his charges, putting them through long distance runs and will, in all probability, surprise his Oakland rivals.

IN THE HIGH SCHOOLS

Competition between the high schools of the bay regions marks the third important contest that will take place. Oakland high school was the first to shy its helmet into the ring but Fremont, Vocational, University, Alameda, Oakland Tech, Berkeley and San Francisco high schools are just doing a little hard, silent work in way of preparation, and the annual fight for supremacy will be settled over the Lake Merritt course in the Eighth Annual TRIBUNE Marathon on Sept 9. Remember, just eight days left to send in your entry blank. Do it now.

Oakland Tennis Kids to Tackle Olympics At Mosswood Courts

Youngsters from the Central Oakland Junior Tennis Club will meet the Olympic Club Juniors tomorrow at Mosswood Park in the first of a series of tennis matches.

Among the older players from across the bay are Wilton Smith, Fred Suhr and Phil Bettens in whom Ray Greenberg, tennis commissioner of the club has great faith. George Downing, who has charge of the tennis activities for the Oakland Recreation Department, will pit them against Harold Dreiske, Johnny Basham, Gene and Bob Vinson, who have been playing fast tennis on local courts during the summer.

Many of the local juniors have signified their intention of entering the bay counties and state championships junior events. Prospective matches for the Central Oakland Junior Tennis Club includes meetings with the Sutter Tennis Club at Sacramento and the Berkeley Tennis Club.

Rheumatism's Pains Are Always Treacherous

Summer an Excellent Time to Combat the Disease.

Some cases of Rheumatism give very little trouble to their victim during the summer season, and for this reason now is a most favorable time to take a course of treatment that will reach the cause of the trouble and remove it from the system.

Otherwise, with the very first cold, damp or disagreeable day, your pains will return and gradually increase in their severity, until you will soon again be in the clutches of this relentless disease.

Why not begin at once a systematic and sensible attack on the millions of tiny germs which cause your Rheumatism and forever rout them from the system? This is the only way to get rid of the disease, for these germs are in the blood, and cannot be reached by liniments, lotions, and other local treatment.

S S S has proven a splendid remedy for Rheumatism, especially that form of the disease which comes from germs in the blood. Being such a thorough blood purifier and cleanser, it routs the germs from the blood, thus removing the cause of your Rheumatism.

Jack Howell Has Been Swimming Less Than Year

JACK HOWELL. Oakland youngster, who was one of the bright stars of the American swimming team at Antwerp. Howell took up swimming less than a year ago.

The local swimming colony is anxiously awaited the result of the 400-meter breast stroke swim at Antwerp yesteday, as Jack Howell, Oakland youngster qualified for the finals. The boys in the Standard Oil plant, where Jack is employed were interested enough to call up every hour or so for news of the race.

Howell is one of the most extraordinary swimmers in the game. It was less than a year ago when he took part in his first race and even today he does not know whether his forte is free style or breast stroke long distance or sprints.

Howell a lad of 19 joined the Oakland Athletic club to take up swimming. The team was one man short on the night of a relay race and Jack was asked to fill in. He did and made the fastest lap of the race.

Taking up breast stoke swimming Jack qualified for the Olympic finals at Neptune Beach and then went east and made the Olympic team.

Howell finished third in the finals of the 400-meter breast stroke yesterday and was the only American to qualify.

Entries Are in for Coast Diving Event

The men's senior high diving championship of the P A A will be fought out among some of the best divers of the bay region in the Idora Park tank Sunday afternoon. Among the entries already received for the event by the Idora management are the following: Bart Coffin, Alameda Neptune club; L J Sweeney, San Francisco Neptune club; Ervin C Wenger, Oakland Olympic club; Robert Beck, San Francisco Neptune club; Leslie Josephs, Alameda Neptune club.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

Those Seattle Rainiers are traveling like a big boulder rolling down a hill. They mowed our Oaks down for the third straight time.

This time they had to battle for twelve innings with the score ending 8 to 2. Roxey Middleon won the game for the Rainiers by hitting a double in the twelfth when a runner was resting on the first bag.

Buz Arlett pitched the full twelve innings and allowed nine hits. Herb Brenton, who was pitching his farewell game for the winners, allowed four hits in nine innings, after which he retired in favor of a pinch hitter.

Herb was given bouquets and plenty of presents by the Seattle fans. Herb left last night to join the Cincinnati Reds.

Yesterday's victory was the sixth straight for the Rainiers.

They are seven games from the top, but that doesn't look like a very big margin as the Rainiers are traveling faster than any club in the league. Those fans in Seattle must be going daffy over Clyde Wares and his players.

Sam Lewis was in rare form at the local ball park yesterday afternoon and he held the Sacrimento Coyotes to three hits, while Lou Moreing looked on to see his Coyotes take a 3-to-1 beating.

Only two Coyotes died on the paths, so there is no denying that Lewis pitched a great game.

Mervin Kopp of the Coyotes drew a walk in the first inning, reached second on a sacrifice by Orr and scored on Compton's single.

But Mervin helped to boot the game away. A walk to Kamm, Schick's out, and Caveney's single tied the score in the third. With two out in the sixth Fitzgerald drew a walk and scored when Kopp let Agnew's single roll by him. Sam was out trying to take third on the boot.

Caveney singled to score the Seals' third run in the eighth, after Kamm had singled and advanced on two infield outs.

In the fourth inning Justin Fitzgerald hit a ball to deep right center. It looked like Fits would make a homer on the clout but as he rounded second base he hurt his foot and had to pull up at third base with a limp.

Biff Schaller hit a home run to give the Portland club a 3-to-1 win over the Tigers. The Tigers tied the score one and one in the ninth and then Schaller came up in the Beavers half and hit for the circuit after Cox had singled.

The Salt Lake Bees defeated the Angels in a slugfest. The score was 11 to 5. Harry Wolter hit a triple and single for the Bees. Earl Sheely and Eddie Mulligan hit three each.

Vitt Grays Defeat Hayward Natives

Joe Vitt and his Grays traveled out to Hayward Sunday and did just as Joe predicted they would do. They handed the Hayward Natives a 3 to 2 beating and in accomplishing the feat they had to hit the shoots of "Babe" Keller, their former teammate for six timely bingles. Babe left the Grays just when that club was going nicely, and while Vitt didn't like to stand in the way of a young fellow bettering himself, he hated to lose Babe. Then followed the feeling that the Grays wanted to beat Babe the first chance they got.

Carol (Dummy) Land was on the hill for the Grays and won his own game by hitting a double in the ninth inning after a runner got on through a boot.

Inside Dope on the Little Four-Rounders

By BOB SHAND.

"You figure the fight fans I can't" chirped Broadway Bill to the gang last night as they gathered at their favorite bootleggers [illegible] the Ringsider.

"Well take that Teddy O'Hara fight the other night for instance. The Irishman took one man's size beating from that Carmen kid, a beating that would have made many a fighter quit and he took it without whimpering.

"Let me tell you how game he was. He doesn't remember anything about that fourth round. Those right-handed socks to his chin scrambled his thinking apparatus and he fought a whole round on his nerve. If you kept track of the right handers he stopped with his jaw they probably numbered a couple of dozen and the Carmen guy had everything behind them. O'Hara did not even go down, he didn't hold on and he didn't try any funny business and for his gameness what did he get?

"THEY GAVE HIM THE RASPBERRY.

"They say Teddy is a swell head and likes himself overmuch. I don't know anything about that. They all look alike to me in the ring but if my worst enemy showed the heart O'Hara showed the other night I would clap both hands together and go hoarse shouting for him.

OUT A LONG TIME

"And don't ever believe that the crowd doesn't worry this Irish lad. He'll tell you he doesn't care if they hoot or not but way down deep it hurts—and hurts bad. They have him half beaten by their unfriendly reception before he has pulled his hindmost leg through the ropes.

"Long after he had left the ring O'Hara was still trying to unscramble his thinking machinery. He asked if he had been knocked out and why the fight was stopped and what time it was in Switzerland when sugar is selling at two bits a pound in China. When Broom went back to the dressing room after the Duffy fight he had to work on O'Hara for ten minutes to bring him to again.

"However, that was one time the hissing and hooting did not worry the lad from the Emerald Isle. They might have been cheering him as he left the ring for all Teddy knew. To this day he's not sure if he rode from the ring to his dressing room in a carriage and pair or swam the distance.

FANS LIKED THIS

"And did you see what a kick the gang got out of the Cello-Coffey fight? They never gave another fighter a hand like they slipped Mister Coffey and it wasn't because Joe is a favorite. They just hated Cello worse and they had it in for him when he started holding. Cello was simply scared stiff. He practically admitted that Coffey had his nanny.

"Did you see Broom walk out of his corner? Harold was so disgusted that he left the fighter to the tender mercies of his opponent in the middle of the fourth round. Harold had inquired many times what was the matter but Cello could not give him any satisfaction so Broom quit the corner cold.

"Thursday morning Cello rang up the joint and asked for Harold.

"'What for you leave my corner for last night?' inquired the scrapper.

"'Because you couldn't fight hard enough to keep yourself warm and I don't think you're none too game,' chirped the bellicose Broom. The conversation being over the telephone Broom unbuttoned some more encouraging information for the benefit of Mr Cello so it looks like there will be one fighter missing when the Simpson barn is locked up for the night."

REGARDING DUFFY

"Wonder what's the matter with Jimmy Duffy? He has gone back faster than he came to the front," said the Galleryite.

"I'll tell you," said Bill. "If I was Duffy's manager he wouldn't do his training in Oakland. There ain't any cafes over San Rafael way. Jimmy, you understand, doesn't drink a drop and he is a tobacco abstainer but he shakes a mean foot on a hardware floor and he's never willing to quit till the band goes home for the night. Then I would take that automobile away from him and let his feet get acquainted with the asphalt again. Jimmy is only a kid and has a lot to learn yet and one of the first things is that he will have to pay attention to his training if he is going to amount to anything in the ring."

FORMER JUDGE'S WIFE IS DEAD

BERKELEY, Aug. 27.—Following an illness of several years, Mrs. Ella R. Sanderson, wife of Judge A. A. Sanderson, formerly on the bench in the superior court in San Francisco, died yesterday at her home, 2907 Pine avenue, aged 67 years.

Mrs. Sanderson had lived in the bay section for the last forty years, coming from her birthplace in New York to California. For thirty years the family home was in San Francisco, later in Alameda, Hayward and Berkeley, Judge Sanderson engaging in the practice of law following his retirement from the bench. Mrs. Sanderson was prominent in club and social circles until ill health compelled her to give up her activities.

Besides her husband Mrs. Sanderson is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Maud Mallett of Berkeley, wife of Fowler Mallett, and secretary of the Berkeley playground commission; Mrs. Elizabeth Fryer, wife of Professor Charles Fryer of McGill university, Montreal, and Mrs. Charlotte Gardner, wife of John Gardner, attorney of Watsonville.

Funeral services will be conducted at [illegible] o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the chapel of the Oakland crematorium.

WATER USERS FILE PROTEST; TO STOP PAY

BERKELEY, Aug. 27.—On the grounds that their water supply had been stopped for as many as six hours in a single day, thirty-seven residents of a district north of the university campus today informed the city council that they would no longer submit to the annoyance and would discontinue payment of water bills until service was assured.

The protest, which was signed by many of the prominent professors in the university, has been turned over to the railroad commission. Some of the signers are: Prof. George T. Colson, Pacific School of Religion; Guy Montgomery, assistant dean of the summer session; Prof. Edwin C. Voorhees, Mrs. Carrie Gibbs, Bernard I. Maybeck, Mrs. William F. Morgan, Mrs. Vincent Surr, R. L. Underhill, C. H. [illegible], and Arthur C. Brodur.

Berkeley Romance; Stanford Wedding

BERKELEY, Aug. 27.—Choosing the memorial chapel at Stanford as the scene, Miss Katherine G. Stoops and James D. Crain, juniors at the University of California, were married Wednesday afternoon. Members of the immediate families motored to Palo Alto with the bridal couple. After the ceremony Crain and his bride left on a wedding trip.

Mrs. Crain is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Stoops, 2418 Durant avenue, Berkeley, formerly of Oakland. Crain is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Crain, former residents of Berkeley, now of Sacramento. The young people will give up their college studies, Crain to engage in business in the bay section.

Theater Lighting Under Inspection

ALAMEDA, Aug. 27.—An inspection of the lighting facilities for theaters was made by the police department today, following an order issued by City Manager C. E. Hewes. Wednesday night when the city was without electric light for a quarter of an hour, patrons of a number of theaters upon attempting to find exits were unable to do so despite the fact that a city ordinance exists providing that theaters must be equipped with electric and gas exit lights.

OFFICER DISARMS S. F. WOMAN WHO COWS INSTITUTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Mrs. Blanche Gray, 2500 Sutter Street, one time possessor of a $50,000 fortune, is safely locked in a padded cell today, after having been disarmed at 11 o'clock last night by Deputy Sheriff Walsh, who walked into her room at the Emergency Hospital and coolly took a loaded revolver away from her. For fourteen hours she had held police and hospital attendants at bay by firing shots from the revolver and threatening all who approached with death.

When Walsh walked through the crowd of police officers, pushed open the door of the woman's room, and calmly took the revolver out of her hand, he ended a siege which had been in progress since 9 o'clock yesterday morning when Mrs. Gray backed the nurse who was undressing her out of the room and fired at all who approached.

WOMAN ROUTS NURSE

The woman was taken to the hospital by Deputy Sheriff Thomas Curran and Policeman P. O. MacNamara about 9 o'clock yesterday morning when she was found flourishing an ice pick and threatening her neighbors. She was being undressed by Miss Nancy McEwen, a nurse, when she suddenly drew a revolver. Miss McEwen fled, crying out that the woman was armed. The woman fired when Dr. Egberg looked into her cell with an improvised periscope. For a time she was so quiet it was thought she had shot herself, but the periscope disclosed her standing quietly against the door. She fired again when Allen McKenna, night steward, tried to talk to her, and threatened to "make a job for the coroner."

Mrs. Gray is the divorced wife of F. W. Gray, of Salt Lake City, who twenty-five years ago owned a newsstand in the Ferry building. They had a beautiful home on Ninth street then. Later Gray secured valuable concessions on roads operating out of Salt Lake City and moved there.

FORTUNE DISSIPATED

When his wife insisted on coming to San Francisco they were divorced and Mrs. Gray was given $40,000 worth of real estate and $5,000 in cash on the condition that she should never return to Utah.

That the woman has spent her entire fortune and is now destitute is indicated by the fact that she was recently served with eviction papers at 2500 Sutter street because she had paid no rent since last November.

SCHOOL BOARD TO HELP PIEDMONT

The rule adopted last spring by the Board of Education excluding students of Piedmont from Oakland public schools is not to be put into effect this year as far as it effects upper class pupils, provided Piedmont will agree to take care of equal numbers of Oakland students. This decision was arrived at last night at a meeting of the Board. The action was taken in view of the fact that Piedmont cannot dispose of its school bonds and will be delayed in the construction of its contemplated new high schcaal.

New teachers appointed were: Addie E. Meal, Ruth E. Smith, Gladys Strong, Helen Zielley, and Fred W. Wetmore. Leaves of absence were granted to Edna A. Brandenburg, Olivia Cunningham, Ethel Kirkpatrick, Ruth A. Hitchcock, and Laura L. McDermott.

The following schedule has been adopted as the school calender for the school year 1920-21:

School open August 23, 1920.

School opens after Christmas Holidays—January 3, 1921.

Beginning of second semester—January 24, 1921.
Spring vacation—March 13 to March 28, 1921.

ADDICOTT, OUSTED, WILL MAKE FIGHT

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—James E. Addicott, who was dismissed from office yesterday by the board of education following his conviction on charges of incompetency brought by Superintendent Alfred Roncovieri, today began plans for carrying his appeal to the superior court.

President George Gallagher of the board of education, gave out the decision which was reached by the board, Dr. D'Ancona, dissenting, and refused to make a statement on the matter.

The board decided that Addicott was guilty of suspending pupils solely for failure to reach a certain academic grade, that he signed suspensions without a personal investigation or without giving pupils and parents a hearing, that he suspended pupils no longer in school and that such acts are contrary to practice in other high schools and opposed to the letter and spirit of the school laws.

In reaching its decision the board lauds the superintendent of schools, declaring that "the superintendent has been guided by a determination to perform the duties of his office conscientiously."

JOHNSON LEADS WAY TO HARDING

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—Hiram W. Johnson has pointed the way for all former followers to cooperate in pthe residential campaign, T. S. Montgomery, San Jose banker and a Johnson delegate to the Chicago convention, says in reply to a query concerning his support of Harding and Coolidge. Montgomery declared that Senator Johnson's stand had removed every bar to the fullest co-operation on the part of all Johnson followers.

Montgomery recalled a talk given Johnson men a few hours after Harding's nomination, at the Auditorium hotel in Chicago.

"We were there to cheer up Hiram—but he cheered us up with the most manly speech I have ever heard," said Montgomery. "Hiram W. Johnson has proven himself on many occasions a dignified winner, but that night, and since then, he proved himself a dignified loser. Senator Johnson is not a candidate this fall and I am going to do as other staunch Johnson supporters, follow his own example and be a good loser. I prefer to remain with the grand old Republican party of progress and I believe that 99 per cent of the Johnson men and women of California will do the same."

WILLIAM KENT for U. S. SENATOR

IT is the old issue in the U. S. Senatorship fight this year: Americanism against organized greed. Progressivism against reaction. Common sense against buncombe.

With William Kent in California stand the men and women who freed California from corporation control and gave it the best government of any state in the Union.

With William Kent at Washington (pleading for his election) stand Republican leaders of the Lincoln tradition—Senators like Kenyon, Capper and Norris, champions of human rights.

Against William Kent in California stands every corporation, newspaper and politician that abused Hiram Johnson in 1910 and fought every progressive step since the citizens of California took its government into their own hands.

William Kent, because he has served the people honestly, is today the target of the same vile slander that veterans of the early progressive campaigns remember so well.

IT is the same old issue, the same old fight.

For thirty years William Kent has fought the Japanese invasion and is a leader in that fight today.

RE-ELECT J. A. ELSTON TO CONGRESS

Don't Jeopardise the Naval Base

J. A. ELSTON, who has represented Alameda County in Congress for three terms, is again a candidate for the Republican nomination and should be returned. To send an untried man to the House of Representatives in this critical year may be disastrous to the County and the Country. The Country at large and Alameda County need the services of a man of experience. Problems of world-wide importance confront the next session of Congress and problems of the utmost importance to Alameda County are pending. The people of Alameda County need J. A. Elston because of his knowledge of these affairs. A new and untried man may mean disaster to many important plans.

The claims of Alameda County to the Naval Base are not yet settled. Congressman Elston has this matter in charge and a change in the Alameda County representative in Congress at this time will jeopardize the location of the Naval Base on this side of the Bay.

J. A. Elston was on guard in Washington during the war times, giving his aid to the great problems that confronted Congress and yet watching the interests of Alameda County and securing for the industries upon this side of the bay the contracts that have built them into great plants employing thousands of well-paid men and women.

J. A. Elston was a War Congressman and as such he deserves return, if for no other reason.

He has pending in Congress appropriations for harbor dredging and postoffice buildings that will be seriously hindered and imperiled if a change is made.

The stand of J. A. Elston in Congress has been solid upon all great questions, and he should be returned without question.

The primary election on Tuesday next is equivalent to the final election because whoever secures the Republican nomination then will be elected in November. The vote at the primary determines the election. Go to the polls and vote for J. A. Elston August 31.

VOTE FOR A. J. WALLACE

Republican Candidate for UNITED STATES SENATOR

At the Primary Election

Next Tuesday, August 31st

FELLOW REPUBLICANS OF OAKLAND:

Please note the following as a few of the many reasons for urging the nomination of A. J. Wallace at Next Tuesday's Very Important Primary:

1. A. J. WALLACE is a tried public servant. As a long-time member of the Los Angeles City Council, as Chairman of its Finance Committee, and as Lieutenant-Governor of California, during the administration of Hiram Johnson, he has shown clear vision, exceptional ability, sound judgment, and rare moral courage in conducting public affairs.

2. A. J. WALLACE is a successful business man. The present demand is for business men in our national legislature. A. J. Wallace is one of the leading business men of California, with interests in many parts of the State. As such he is exceptionally well qualified to legislate for California's business welfare.

3. A. J. WALLACE is a progressive Republican. This kind of Republican comprises more than four-fifths of the party in California. No one can call A. J. Wallace, as other candidates are sometimes called, either a reactionary or an extreme radical. He is a real American citizen upholding American ideals.

4. A. J. WALLACE can be elected in November. As Republicans we naturally desire a Republican United States Senate. Southern California, as shown by the recent census, is growing by leaps and bounds, and naturally feels entitled to one of California's two senators. Accordingly she will vote as a unit in November for this Southern California candidate, thus uniting North and South and assuring a Republican Senator if A. J. Wallace is nominated next Tuesday.

5. A. J. WALLACE will uphold Dry Legislation. By the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment the liquor question is closed. Nothing short of the repeal of that Amendment should reopen it. The Federal constitution is our supreme law and our laws must be enforced if our government is to endure. A. J. Wallace is the only California candidate for United States Senator who has publicly stated that he will permit no weakening of the liquor enforcement law. This fact alone should give him the vote of every man and woman who wants to see Prohibition given a fair trial. He is the only candidate for this office who has received the endorsement of the great dry organizations of California and all good citizens, who are satisfied that this liquor question is at last settled, should be for him. VOTE FOR A. J. WALLACE NEXT TUESDAY. YOUR VOTE IS NEEDED. DON'T FAIL TO VOTE. Respectfully submitted,

SING SPECIALISTS TREAT SKIN ILLS

That the famous Sing Herb Specialists have had great success in the treatment of skin diseases of all sorts is attested by the many hundreds of letters they have received from enthusiastic patients who declare their treatments to be little short of miraculous.

When the organs of the body are not functioning properly they throw all sorts of impurities into the blood which carries them throughout the system, manifesting themselves in the form of hideous eruptions. The Sing Herbs go to the root of the trouble in the poorly functioning organs. They cleanse and heal them and give them normal action. Then they flush out the entire system, leaving the blood pure and fresh.

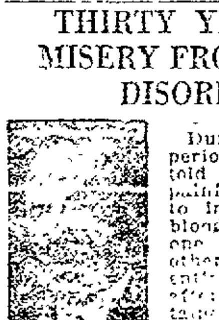
THIRTY YEARS OF MISERY FROM BLOOD DISORDERS



Angelo Johnson

During this long period I suffered untold agonies from painful eruptions due to impurities of the blood. I went from one hospital to another and spent my entire earnings year after year, but obtained no relief.

Finally I went to the Fong Wan Herb Co. and drank their herb tea. I began to improve immediately and now, after only three months of this mild and harmless treatment, my system is thoroughly cleansed and my sores all gone. Out of gratitude for this marvelous relief after thirty years of despair, I am giving the company my photo and testimonial. My address can be obtained at their office.

The Waterfront

Yesterday and today was Alaska day for this port with the arrivals of several of the Bristol Bay salmon craft. Over 1500 men, who have been away from home for nearly six months, returned to their families in good health, but with very small earnings. The fish this season were not so plentiful in the Bering Sea district, and the men returned very much disheartened, but no one was to blame as the packers were willing to can all the fish the men could pack and were prepared for a large pack.

The men were also willing to fish, but the fish had taken another route this season, and less fish were caught than in any other year known in the history of Alaska fishing.

The schooner C. A. Thayer, owned and operated by P. M. Nelson of Oakland, whose dock and warehouse is at the foot of Alice street, usually returns home about this time of the year with 2500 barrels of salt salmon. This season she arrived on time with only 1200 barrels. The bark Pactolus, Captain Larsen, brought 17,500 cases of salmon, her usual pack being 50,000 cases. The motor schooner Margaret came home in ballast, as likewise did the schooner Metha Nelson of the Alaska Packers fleet.

The bark B. P. Cheney brought 15,028 cases, compared to her usual 35,000 cases. The bark Hecla has 16,500 cases, her previous record is 38,000 cases. The bark St. Katherine has 19,400 cases, compared to 39,000 cases of other seasons.

The ship Star of Lapland brings 17,869 cases when she usually brings back 115,000 cases, and the schooner Chas. R. Wilson, a beginner in the salmon business, operated by merchants of the Oakland waterfront, came back yesterday on her maiden voyage as a fishing craft with only 1100 barrels of salt salmon, making a total of 86,279 cases and 2300 barrels of salmon brought in by seven vessels besides two craft that arrived without any cargoes.

The entire cargo of all craft could be carried by the ship Star of Lapland with space to spare.

All the canneries are closed down at Bristol Bay for the season, and the vessels have all left for home. Within the next few days the entire Bering Sea fleet will be in port. The Southeastern Alaska canneries are still operating and will close about the end of this month, these canneries having a large pack, and it will help the operators pay the losses of the Bristol Bay canneries this year.

The Southern Pacific car ferry steamer Solano was brought down from Benicia today by Capt. Henry Hanson of Berkeley, better known as Handsome Henry. The big craft will have a general overhauling, as her hull is in bad shape, caused by the teredoes. The Contra Costa, which has just completed her repairs, went back to Benicia and takes the Solano's place. While the craft is being overhauled, Captain Hansen will take command of the steamer Alameda on the broad-gauge route, taking the place of Capt. Charles Carlson, who is on a vacation.

Change of masters registered at the U. S. Custom House: Captain B. Simonsen, steamer Frank H. Buck; Capt. J. Griffith, steamer Caracas; Capt. A. Pelle, schooner Santa Paula; Capt. G. Schultz, steamer Daisy Gadsby; Capt. G. D. Skeriof, steamer [illegible]

INDUSTRIAL NEWS EAST WEST SHIPPING DAYS EVENTS IN WORLD OF FINANCE

FEDERAL BOARD SAYS PRICES ARE ON DOWN GRADE

WASHINGTON, August 27. (By The Associated Press).—Marked indications that living costs apparently have started on their long-awaited fall was said by the Federal Reserve Board to be contained in its latest reports. A [illegible] tendency" in prices of all commodities excepting food is evidenced in all parts of the country, the board stated, adding that a sharp reduction in the price of raw products even forecasts lower food prices.

The board in commenting on the price changes said that there had been a "pronounced checking" of speculation as well as a definite, although slight increase, in general efficiency and an "equally positive yet limited curtailment of extravagant expenditure" and "unnecessary borrowing." There has been also a "sustained tendency" toward the paying of loans secured by government and other bonds and securities.

The board's reports reveal that within the last two months price changes have been marked in all basic raw products but have been most noticeable in wool, silk and leather. These reductions are said to have been accompanied generally by a corresponding drop of prices in the retail field in clothing and shoes and several other staples.

"In wool, the termination of government control in various ports of the world and the steady [illegible] of the raw supplies held by the United States have had an impotant effect," said the board.

A "depressed situation" was said to exist in the leather and shoe industry. The manufacturers, however, anticipate a heavy fall business.

The break in the silk market was attributed to speculative activity in Japan.

Lower prices on cotton and cotton products were forecast because of an expected heavy crop combined with a slowing up of demand.

The mills were said to be approaching completion of orders already in their hands.

In addition, the board foresees a generally higher efficiency by labor in industrial production and an improved transportation service.

State to Test Sale of Honey Overseas

The state market director's office announces the departure of William Gunterman, of Imperial valley, for Europe, to represent the California market director on the state board of directors of the California Honey Producers' association, in investigating crop and production conditions abroad. The California crop is estimated to reach a value of $1,500,000 dollars this year, as compared with $1,000,000 last year. One of the purposes of Commissioner Gunterman will be to secure an European market for the surplus production of this state.

HIGHER LEVELS IS INDICATED BY SALES OF STOCKS

NEW YORK, Aug. 27. — With scarcely an exception the movement of prices at the opening of today's stock market was toward higher levels. Rails were less prominent in the advance, yielding to steels, equipments, oils, motors, shippings and tobaccos. Metals were the only [illegible] to manifest reactionary tendencies, Utah Copper losing almost a point. A moderate initial setback in Reading was soon recovered.

The market strengthened during the active first hour, industrials, specialties and the cheaper rails scoring gains of 1 to almost 3 points. Shippings and motors also extended their early advances with equipments and tobaccos. The rise was checked before noon, however, on another reversal of foreign exchange and an opening rate of 8 per cent for call money. The setback in exchange was accompanied by less favorable advices respecting the Central European situation.

Motors and oils eased at midday, Studebaker, Pierce Arrow, Goodrich, Shell Transport and Invincible Oil losing 1 to 2¼ points. This was offset by gains of 1½ to 3 points in obscure coalers, such as Bond Creek, Elkhorn and Pittsburgh Coal.

Motors and sugars were singled out for pressure in the last hour, when the rate for call loans amounted to 10 per cent. Oils and equipments also fell back, but rails railied moderately. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated [illegible] shares.

News Encourages Bears to Renew Wall Street Raid

NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Evening Sun financial review this afternoon said:

Higher call money rates—call renewals at 8 percent and 9 percent—was quoted at mid-day and 10 percent in the last hour—and news developments from Europe indicating that Russia was preparing a counter stroke against the Poles, precluding the prospect of immediate peace, were an encouragement to the bears in today's stock market. In the first half hour or so after the opening prices advanced in numerous cases very substantially, entailing gains of one to three points widely distributed throughout the industrial list. Then short selling began to make itself felt and heaviness set in, which condition of things obtained through most of the remaining session.

The quoting of ten percent for call loans in the late session made little impression on stock values. Trading was quiet through the last hour and prices heavy, but not positively weak.

Argentine Releases Gold for U. S. Trade

BUENOS AYRES, Aug. 27.—Foreign Minister Salaberry announced today that he would soon release $23,000,000 which is held in the United States to the credit of the account of the Argentine [illegible] added that, with the release of the remaining deposits, transactions based on them would be entrusted exclusively to the Bank of the Nation under regulations which would eliminate arbitrage operations and insure bona fide transactions upon actual purchases of commodities in the United States.

The decree releasing the gold is expected on Saturday, and it is presumed it will have the effect of reducing the heavy discount on the Argentine pesos in the United States. The Argentine government now holds $100,000,000 in gold in excess of the amount for circulation, and banks in addition hold $67,000,000. Deputy Pena told the Chamber that business of exchange is now in the hands of skillful agents of foreign banks, "who do not permit us to be our own economic masters."

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Aug. 27. — Buying credited to shorts was a feature of the early wheat market. After starting unchanged to ¾c higher, with Dec. $2.33½ to $2.34 and March $2.29½, additional strength developed and prices advanced above yesterday's highest point.

Wheat prices advanced around 6 cents from the previous day's close, when offerings increased on the bulge and caused a reaction which resulted in part of the upturn being lost, but at the finish the market showed a net gain of 2¼ to 3¼c over the previous close, with September $2.36¼ to $2.36½ and March $2.30¼.

Poultry Receipts Are Heavy; Prices Higher

Poultry receipts have been unusually heavy this week and prices have remained firm, advancing in two or three items. The demand has been so good that stock are cleaning up well from day to day. Small friers stiffened in price two cents a pound on Tuesday, and the steadiness of the market during the week was marked today by a two-cent advance in the price of live turkeys.

Freight Increase Will Raise Costs Only 2 Pct., S. P. Says

The Southern Pacific Company today issued a statement in which it sets forth the actual amount of the freight increases on a number of every-day commodities.

The increase in rates on a ton of Utah coal as shown by this statement is $1.45. Coal dealers explained the $2 a ton increase, which was put in effect today, by declaring that on some grades of coal the added freight charges a ton are in excess of $2 and that $2 is about an average figure.

It now costs 4 2-3 cent more to send a woman's tailored suit from New York here than it did formerly.

It now costs 3 1-3 cents more to send a pair of shoes from Boston here than formerly.

It now costs one-tenth of a cent more to send a pound of flour from South Vallejo to Merced than formerly.

It now costs three-tenths of a cent more to send a pound of butter from Sacramento to Lovelock, Nevada, than formerly.

It now costs one-fifth of a cent more to send a pound of sugar from the Crocket refinery to Ogden, Utah, than formerly.

It now costs one-tenth of a cent more to send a pound of beef cattle from Dalziel, Calif., to Oakland than formerly.

It no wcosts one-tenth of a cent more to send a pound of beefsteak from South San Francisco to Fresno than formerly.

Southern Pacific officials say that ordinarily the increase will not amount to more than 2 per cent of the value of the freighted commodity.

It is set forthe in the Southern Pacific statement that instances have been reported of dealers who argued to consumers that a twenty-five per cent increase in freight rates means a twenty-five per cent increase in prices so that the extra fergiht on something costing $10 would be $2.50. This is not the case, the statement claims, for to figure that way would be to assume that the entire present cost of a commodity was the freight on it and that costs of manufacture were nil.

Flour Price Drops Forty Cents Barrel

A drop of forty cents a barrel in the wholesale price of flour is put in effect today, according to advices received by local wholesale grocers from leading millers. This will mean a corresponding drop in the retail price which will not, however, be put in effect until stocks which retailers have on hand purchased at the old price are disposed of. The new price makes a 50-pound sack cost $3.83; a 25-pound sack, $1.95, and a 10-pound sack 85 cents.

The drop is due to the extraordinarily large wheat crop this year. It is the second decline within a month, a similar 40-cent drop having been put in effect during the latter part of July. Further declines are expected, it is said, at the local Retail Grocers' association.

HALF BOTTLE OF WINE PROMISES PECK OF TROUBLE

He was arrested at Twenty-fourth and Telegraph by Special Officer E. H. Peters. "Here, offsher, have drink," said the bibulous one. "Don's be afraid. Lotsh more where this came from."

"Where id you get it?" asked the cop.

Peters was informed by the roysterer that he worked for Mrs. G. D. Abbott, 25 Crocker avenue, Piedmont, and that he had taken the wine from her cellar.

Berdull, when arraigned in the Federal court in San Francisco, told Judge Van Fleet that the wine was sour. He was fined $25.

Funeral Held for Alexander Pulcifer

Funeral services for Alexander W. Pulcifer, father of Judge Harry Pulcifer, were held this afternoon at the undertaking parlors at Thirteenth and Jefferson streets. They were conducted by the Oakland Lodge of Odd Fellows, in which lodge Pulcifer had held all of the different official posts. WOMAN REVEALS STORY OF LIFE IN CHARGE OF FRAUD

Revealing the story of her life, Miss Grace Wright today completed her testimony in which she charges E. H. McConkey, now president of the Chicago National Life Insurance Company, Chicago, with defrauding her out of property valued at $10,000, after she had traveled all over the country with him for 14 years as his wife

How she met McConkey in Baltimore in 1905 when she was only 17 years old, and on his promise to marry her accompanied him to most of the principal cities in the United States and Mexico, was related by Miss Wright She told how they finally arrived in Oakland and resided here for several years while McConkey continued his insurance business

LEARNS HE'S MARRIED

It was not until McConkey applied in San Francisco for a divorce that she found out that McConkey was married Miss Wright testified She said that previous to this McConkey had always represented tsat he was single and would sometime marry her

Then relating how she was defrauded out of the property at 513 Boulevard way Miss Wright said she was bitten by a dog on September 30 1918 and became afflicted with rabies which caused temporary blindness While she was in this condition Miss Wright told the court McConkey had her sign several bank checks to obtain funds, and in this manner succeeded in getting her to sign what she believes to have been a blank deed

DEED IS RECORDED

Miss Wright said she never knew she had signed the purported deed conveying the property to McConkey and his mother Mrs Mary E McConkey, until he had the deed recorded last June, months after he had deserted her and gone to Chicago

Since Miss Wright filed the suit against McConkey, according to A. Walter Allen and Frarnklin P Bell, her attorneys McConkey has endeavored to effect a reconciliation with Miss Wright, she alleges, and have the suit dismissed, but she has spurned all such offers

TELLS HOW TO BEAUTIFY HAIR

Has Devoted Over Forty Years of Study to Hair and Scalp Troubles

Prof John H Austin bacteriologist hair and scalp specialist of Chicago [illegible] now his offices at The Owl Drug Co says that it is really remarkable that so few men and women nowadays possess an abundance of beautiful healthy hair Prof Austin is probably right in saying that so little is generally known about the hair and scalp that when a little trouble actually arises the person afflicted turns to anything recommended by anybody, and usually the results are disastrous

Science has proved that different ailments of the hair and scalp require different treatments The particular trouble with which your hair or scalp is afflicted must be known before it can be intelligently treated Guesswork is of no practical value concerning hair troubles Prof Austin has found that only a powerful microscope can determine the exact trouble with which the hair or scalp is afflicted

Prof Austin says that the use of [illegible] dandruff cures, hair tonics vaseline and elixirs is like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure.

FREE MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION of the hair and scalp Both men and women invited Private offices at The Owl Drug Co, 14th and Washington, Oakland, 778 Market St, San Francisco Hours 10 to 12 and 2 to 4. —Advertisement.

One of the relics of war and probably the last reminder of Oakland's share in the great conflict with its memory of big things accomplished passed from view last week when the Liberty hut was moved from the city hall plaza.

Other interesting scenes on this week's TRIBUNE-T. & D News Weekly show the first academic procession of faculty and students at Mills College; the launching of the Charlie Watson, first electrically-equipped tanker, at the Union Construction company and the Hayward product fair.
